Lord I have cried

Tone 4

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

O Lord, listen to me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

Note the voice of my plea when I cry to you.

O Lord, listen to me.

² Let my prayer be directed before you like incense,
the raising of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

O Lord, listen to me.

S6: O Lord, if you mark offences, who will stand?

But there is forgiveness with you.

O Stephen, your soul was illuminated with the grace of the Holy Spirit and your face shone like an angel. Your body was made radiant by the brightness within you and the contemplation of God's light was your only joy. Therefore, O leader and glory of the martyrs, the heavens were marvellously opened to you.

S5: O Lord, I have waited for you for your name's sake;

my soul has waited for your word,

my soul has hoped in the Lord.

The hail of stones became the steps of a ladder by which you ascended to the gates of heaven. You saw the Lord as he stood at the right hand of the Father; he offered you a crown with his own life-giving hand. Truly you have fulfilled the meaning of your name. Now, O glorious conqueror, you stand before him as the first warrior offered in battle.

S4: Let Israel hope in the Lord

from morning watch until night,

from morning watch.

You were distinguished for signs, wonders and heavenly preaching and destroyed the malice of the evil council. O blessed Stephen, you begged God to forgive them as they stoned you to death. By using the words of the Saviour as he hung on the Cross, you commended your pure spirit into his hands.

S3: For there is mercy with the Lord and abundant redemption with him.

He will redeem Israel from all his offences.

O venerable Theodoros, servant of Christ, the wounds of exile at the hands of the evil usurper on the imperial throne were added to those of leaving your country. He overthrew the traditions of faith and destroyed the holy icons of the Saviour. You baffled him with the grace of God.

S2: Every nation, praise the Lord;
every people, acclaim him!

O Theodoros, holy singer for our God, neither agony, nor prison in the darkness without light, nor wounds, nor blows were able to separate you from the love of Christ. Neither the painful, dreary illness, nor the lack of food could accomplish it. You were not disturbed, yet endured everything and foresaw the reward above in the midst of your tortures.

S1: For his mercy is strengthened over us and the truth of the Lord remains for ever.

The just Judge of combats gave you joyful rest because of your pains and afflictions. He gave you his radiance because of your imprisonment in darkness. He wrote your name in the book of life because of what was carved on your face. You took your place in the assembly of the first-born in the heights of heaven and, because you were full of joy, joined the festive choir of the angels.

Glory: Tone 2

The all-beautiful Stephen, who is adorned with the crimson of his own blood as though with precious gems, is offered to the King and Lord of all who is born on earth today. O lovers of the martyrs, come and weave the flowers of song into a crown, and honour the Proto-martyr of Christ our God, for his spirit is radiant with wisdom and love. We will receive peace and great mercy through his prayers.

Both now:

A great and mighty wonder has come to pass this day. A virgin bears a child and her womb suffers no corruption. The Word is made flesh, yet does not cease to live with the Father. Angels and shepherds give glory, and, together with them, we cry out, “Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth!”

Entrance

Phos Ilarón

P/D: Wisdom! Stand upright!

O Jesus Christ, joyful light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy, blessed Father, when we come to the setting of the sun and see the light of evening, we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

For it is right at all times to worship you with voices of praise,
O Son of God and Giver of life.
Therefore the world glorifies you.

Prokeímenon

Of the Day

Ektení

Prayer

O Lord, allow us this night to be guarded from sin. Blessed are you, O Lord, God of our fathers! Praised and glorified be your name for ever. Amen. O Lord, let your mercy be on us, for we have hoped in you. Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes. Blessed are you, O Master; make me understand your statutes. Blessed are you, O Holy One; enlighten me with your statutes. O Lord, your mercy lasts for ever; do not overlook the work of your hands. To you belongs worship, to you belongs praise, to you belongs glory, to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

Plirotiká

Prayer

P: Peace be with you all. R: And with your spirit

D: Bow down your heads to the Lord. R: To you, O Lord.

P: For blessed and glorified is the power of your Kingdom, of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

Amen.

Apósticha

Tone 1

Let us sing to the eternal Son who sprang from the bosom of the Father before all ages. In the fullness of time he rests on the throne of his Mother's arms. Together with the angels, the shepherds and the Wise Men, let us worship him.

S1: The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit on my right
until I make your enemies a stool for your feet." Ps 109

O faithful, let us assemble in Bethlehem and see the Creator of all who lies in the manger. The Wise Men from Chaldea offer him three precious gifts, for as our King and God he will live three days among the dead.

S2: I have fathered you from the womb before the Morning Star. 109
When you were born in the cave from the Virgin, the host of angels hovered round you and cried out, "Glory to you in the highest! O God, glory to you, for you have taken the form of a servant! You were born from the womb of the unwedded Mother and Virgin, and have renewed the inhabited earth.

Glory: Tone 6

O blessed Stephen, you are the adornment of Christ's warriors, the first among deacons and the first among martyrs. You are the joy of the faithful and the glory of the just. As you stand before Christ, the Lord of all, pray for us who celebrate your honourable memory, so that we may receive remission of our sins and be counted worthy of the kingdom of heaven.

Both now:

All the angels in heaven rejoice and greatly celebrate today. The whole creation leaps with joy, for the Saviour and Lord is born in Bethlehem. Every idolatrous error has ceased and Christ reigns throughout all the ages.

Song of Simeon

B/P: O Master, now let your servant depart in peace
 according to your word,
² for my eyes have seen your salvation,
 which you have prepared before all peoples,
³ a light of revelation for the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

P: For yours is the might, and yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory of the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen

Kathisma 1

Tone 1

O Jesus, you reign above on the fiery throne with the Father who has no beginning and with the Holy Spirit. Yet you are pleased to be born as a child in the flesh from a pure Mother who has not known man. A star reveals you to the Persian Wise Men. Glory to your will which is boundless in goodness! Glory to your appearance! Glory to your condescension to us from the heights! X2

Kathisma 2

Tone 4

Your heart became a fountain of Christ's Spirit. You exposed the stubbornness of the Jews. You announced to them that the Son of God had bloomed from David's seed. O beautiful martyr, you were filled with the perfection of wisdom and grace. As we honour your thrice-blessed memory, may we be saved by your prayers.

Glory: Both now:

How is the Lord contained in a womb, whom nothing can contain? How can the one who is in the bosom of the Father be held in the arms of his Mother? This is according to his good pleasure, as he knows and desires. For although he was without flesh, he has chosen to become flesh; the existing one has become what he was not for our sakes. Without departing from his own nature he has shared our nature. Because he wanted to fill the world on high with citizens, Christ has undergone a twofold birth.

Small Litany

P: For blessed is your name, and glorified is your kingdom, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen

Psalm 50

O God, have mercy on me in your abundant mercy and wipe out my offence through your great compassion.
⁴ Wash me thoroughly from my lawless act and cleanse me from my sin.
⁵ For I know my lawlessness and my sin is always before me.
⁶ I have sinned against you alone and done this evil before you ^{6b} so that you might be justified in your words and overcome when you are judged.
⁷ For see, I was conceived in lawlessness and my mother gave birth to me in sin.

- ⁸ For see, you have loved truth and revealed to me the hidden and secret things of your wisdom.
- ⁹ You will sprinkle me with hyssop and I will be clean;
you will wash me and I will become whiter than snow.
- ¹⁰ You will make me hear about joy and gladness;
the humbled bones will rejoice.
- ¹¹ Turn your face from my sins and wipe out all my lawlessness.
- ¹² O God, create a pure heart within me and renew an upright spirit within me.
- ¹³ Do not banish me from your presence or remove your Holy Spirit from me.
- ¹⁴ Restore the joy of your salvation to me and make me firm with your directing Spirit.
- ¹⁵ I will teach the lawless your ways and the ungodly will return to you.
- ¹⁶ O God, set me free from the guilt of blood;
O God of my salvation,
my tongue will rejoice in your justice.
- ¹⁷ O Lord, you will open my lips and my mouth will proclaim your praise.
- ¹⁸ For if you had wanted sacrifice, I would have given it;
you will not be pleased with burnt offerings.
- ¹⁹ Sacrifice for God is a broken spirit;
God will not despise a broken and humbled heart.
- ²⁰ O Lord, be good to Zion in your pleasure and let the walls of Jerusalem be built.
- ²¹ Then you will be pleased with a sacrifice of justice,
with an offering and burnt sacrifices;
then they will offer calves on your altar.

Kontákia

Tone 3

Today the Virgin gives birth to the transcendent Being and the earth offers a cave to the unapproachable Lord. Angels with shepherds glorify him. The wise men travel with the star, because for our sake the eternal God was born as a little Child.

Tone 3

Yesterday the Master assumed our flesh and became our guest; today his servant, the glorious proto-martyr Stephen, is stoned to death and departs in the flesh.

Íkos

Today the first martyr Stephen shines as a bright star for the Church of Christ and all the earth is illuminated by his dazzling rays. He confounded the faithlessness of the Jews and exposed their errors through words of wisdom proved by the Scriptures. He faithfully testified that Jesus, born of the Virgin Mary, is truly the Son of God. He is the one who confounds their stiff-necked stubbornness; he is the glorious protomartyr Stephen.

Synaxáron

Today we remember the holy apostle, protomartyr and archdeacon Stephen, one of the seven deacons of Acts 6. At his defence before the Jewish Council he showed that the Law and the Temple were not essential for the people of God. He rebuked them for their hardness of heart. Before his stoning he had a vision of Jesus at the right hand of God. On the Twenty Seventh the heaven was opened to him.

On the same day we commemorate our renowned father Theodoros the branded, brother of Theophánis the hymnographer, of Palestine and Constantinople, who lived in the Ninth Century.

Together with them we remember:

Martyr Mavríkios of Apamía with 70 Companions C4

Archbishop Theódoros of Constantinople C7

O God, have mercy on us through their holy prayers. Amen.

Katavasías

1: In times past the Master who accomplishes wonders saved his people and made the watery wave of the sea into dry land. Now he has been willingly born from a maiden and so establishes a path for us by which we can ascend to heaven. We glorify him the Lord who is equal in being with the Father and also with mortal men.

3: O Benefactor, graciously accept, the praises of your servants and bring down the spiteful, haughty looks of the enemy. O blessed Lord, you see everything, so raise us far above sin and establish your singers firm and unshaken on the foundation of the faith.

4: In past time Habakkuk the prophet was counted worthy to see ineffably the figure and symbol of Christ's birth; he foretold in song the renewal of the human race. For a young Baby, even the Word, has now come from the mountain, which is the Virgin, for the renewal of the peoples.

5: O Christ, we watch in vigil during the night of the deeds of dark error and sing to you as our Benefactor. "Come to us and grant us cleansing. Ease the path for us by which we may ascend and so attain glory."

6: Jonah was enclosed in the remotest depths of the sea; he implored you to come and still the storm. O Christ, I am pricked by the dart of the tyrant and call out to you, the Slayer of evil; I implore you to come quickly and rescue me from my slothfulness.

7: The children were captured and held fast by love for the King of all. They did not despise the ungodly threats of the tyrant in his boundless fury. As the terrible fire withdrew before them, they said to the Master, "Blessed are you throughout all the ages!"

8: Let us praise, bless and worship the Lord. The children of the Old Covenant who walked in the fire without being burnt, prefigured the womb of the Maiden which remained sealed when she gave birth in a manner beyond nature. The same grace of God brought both these wonders to pass in a miracle and raised the nations to sing in praise.

Ode 9

My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour. R:

R: You are more honourable than the Cherubim and beyond compare more glorious than the Seraphim.
You gave birth to God the Word without defilement;
O true Theotokos, we glorify you.

² For he has regarded his servant's humility;

see, from now all generations will call me blessed. R:
³ For the Almighty has accomplished great things for me and his name is holy.

His mercy is from generation to generation
 on those who fear him. R:

⁴ He has accomplished strength with his arm and scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. R:

⁵ He has put down the mighty from their thrones and exalted the humble.

He has satisfied the hungry with good things and dismissed the rich with nothing. R:

⁶ He has helped his servant Israel
 in remembering his mercy,
 as he spoke to our fathers,
 to Abraham and his seed for ever. R:

9: It would be easier, as a refuge from danger, for us to keep silence in fear. O Virgin, it is hard indeed to compose songs in love which are put together in harmony. O Mother, give us strength to fulfil our good intention.

Small Litany

P: For all the powers of heaven praise you, and to you we send up glory, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen

Exaposteilária

Tone 3

Stephen is offered to the King as a living sacrifice, for today he departs in the flesh to the almighty God who came to live in the flesh. He completed his combat with honour for the sake of Christ.

Tone 2

The one who was filled with the grace and power of God truly accomplished wonders. He contested the assembly of the murderers of our God who were weaving deluded plots. Stephen spoke about God and cried out with a loud voice, "I see Jesus standing at the right hand of the Father!" They then stoned him and he rose to Christ; he carried his crown to heaven.

Tone 2

The Word who is coeternal, consubstantial and co-equal to the Father and the Son, has now come into the world as a Child through the Virgin in Bethlehem. The proto-martyr Stephen clearly announced him with joy as Saviour and God while he was being stoned at the hands of criminals. He climbed to Christ in the heavens as he carried his crown.

Praises

Tone 1

Let everything with breath praise the Lord.
Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.
To you, O God, is due a song.

Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his powers.
To you, O God, is due a song.

S4: Praise him with cymbal and dance;
praise him with strings and flute.

O faithful, let us weave a crown for the champion, the first of the fighters and the flower of victory. He leads the hosts of martyrs, who prepare their way, towards the Lord, for he saw beforehand the goal. He cried out with joy, "See, I gaze on the open heavens and on the Son of God standing at the right hand of the Father who has no beginning."

Tone 2

S3: Praise him with tuneful cymbals;
praise him with joyful cymbals.
Let everything with breath praise the Lord.
O archdeacon and proto-martyr Stephen, you are the blessed companion of the angels in heaven and have clothed yourself in holiness. Pray and intercede for us to the Lord and Saviour who alone is sinless.

S2: The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit on my right
until I make your enemies a stool for your feet." Ps 109

Most holy Stephen, first among deacons and the first among martyrs, you have opened the way for all the saints and lead countless martyrs to the Lord. Therefore the heavens opened and God revealed himself to you. Pray that he will save our souls.

Tone 4

S1: I have fathered you from the womb before the Morning Star.¹⁰⁹ The blessed Stephen, the first-fruits of the martyrs, full of grace and power, did great signs and wonders among the people. Although he shone like an angel, he was stoned by a lawless mob. He saw the glory of the incarnate Son at the right hand of the Father. He was taken up to heaven by the Spirit of love. There he lives with the choirs of angels and prays that our souls may be saved.

Glory: Tone 5

Hail, O proto-martyr and first of deacons, gateway of confessors and joy of apostles! In the midst of your trial the heavens were opened to you and you saw the Son of God standing at the right hand of the Father who has no beginning. Your face shone like an angel and you cried out with joy as the evil assembly stoned you, “O Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” Pray for us who in love celebrate your memory, so that, as we forgive our enemies, he may grant us remission of our sins.

Both now:

Today a great mystery is fulfilled in Bethlehem. The invisible Lord has appeared to us. The bodiless one has taken our flesh; the uncircumscribed Word assumes the limitations of matter. The one who is all becomes as though he were nothing, for the Virgin bears her first-born Son in the cave, and the manger becomes a heavenly throne. The animals keep vigil like the Cherubim and the shepherds marvel. The Wise Men offer their gifts, and the angels rejoice and sing, “Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth!” God takes delight in men; his name is Emmanuel for all time.

Great Doxology

Glory to you who have shown us the light!

Apostolos

From the Acts of the Apostles (6:8-7:5, 47-60)

In those days Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), and of the Cyre'nians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cili'cia and Asia, arose and disputed with Stephen. ¹⁰But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. ¹¹Then they secretly instigated men, who said, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." ¹²And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him and seized him and brought him before the council, ¹³and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never ceases to speak words against this holy place and the law; ¹⁴for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." ¹⁵And gazing at him, all who sat in the council saw that his face was like the face of an angel. ¹And the high priest said, "Is this so?" ²And Stephen said: "Brothers and fathers, hear me. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopota'mia, before he lived in Haran, ³and said to him, 'Depart from your land and from your kindred and go into the land which I will show you.' ⁴Then he departed from the land of the Chalde'ans, and lived in Haran. And after his father died, God removed him from there into this land in which you are now living; ⁵yet he gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot's length, but promised to give it to him in possession and to his posterity after him, though he had no child. ⁴⁷But it was Solomon who built a house for him. ⁴⁸Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands; as the prophet says, ⁴⁹'Heaven is my throne, and earth my footstool. What house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what is the place of my rest? ⁵⁰: Did not my hand make all these things?' ⁵¹"You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. ⁵²Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered,⁵³ you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it." ⁵⁴Now when they heard these things they were enraged, and they ground their teeth against him. ⁵⁵But he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God; ⁵⁶and he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God." ⁵⁷But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed together upon him. ⁵⁸Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him; and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹And as they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." ⁶⁰: And he knelt down and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Alleluia Ps 88 Tone 2

S1: O Lord, the heavens will acknowledge your wonders.

S2: God is glorified in the council of the saints.

Gospel

From the Holy Gospel according to Matthew (21:33-42)

The Lord said to his disciples, "Hear another parable. There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country. ³⁴ When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to get his fruit; ³⁵ and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. ³⁶ Again he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them. ³⁷ Afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' ³⁸ But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.' ³⁹ And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰ When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" ⁴¹ They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons." ⁴² Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner; this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes'?"

Communion Ps 18

⁵Their sound has gone out into all the earth
