VESPERS

Lord I have cried

Tone 7

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

O Lord, listen to me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

Note the voice of my plea when I cry to you.

O Lord, listen to me.

² Let my prayer prosper before you like incense,
the raising of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

O Lord, listen to me.

Tone 7

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

O Lord, listen to me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

be attentive to the voice of my plea when I cry to you.

O Lord, listen to me.

² Let my prayer be presented before you like incense,
the raising of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

O Lord, listen to me.

S10: Lead my soul from prison that I may acknowledge your name.

Come, let us rejoice in the Lord who destroyed the dominion of death and enlightened the human race. Let us sing to him with the bodiless hosts, “Our Maker and Saviour, glory to you!”

S9: The just will wait for me, until you reward me.

O Saviour, you endured the cross and burial for our sake. As God you destroyed death by your death. We fall down before your resurrection on the third day. O Lord, glory to you!

S8: O Lord, I have cried to you from the depths;

O Lord listen to my voice.

When the Apostles saw the resurrection of the Maker, they were amazed and sang the angelic praise, “This is the glory of the Church; this is the wealth of the kingdom.” O Lord who suffered for our sake, glory to you!

S7: Let your ears note the voice of my plea.

O Christ, you were held by lawless men, but you are my God and I am not ashamed. You were struck on the cheek, but I do not deny you. You were nailed to the cross and I do not conceal it, for I glorify your resurrection and your death is my life. O almighty Lord, Lover of the human race, glory to you!

S6: O Lord, if you mark offences, who will stand?

But there is forgiveness with you.

Christ fulfilled the prophecy of David and revealed his own greatness in Zion to the disciples. He is praised and always glorified, together with the Father and the Holy Spirit. At first, as the Word, he was bodiless, but later he took flesh and was killed for our sake as man. He rose with power, for he is the Lover of the human race.

S5: O Lord, I have waited for you for your name’s sake;

my soul has waited for your word,

my soul has hoped in the Lord.

O Christ, you descended into Hades as you freely determined; you overthrew death as God and Master. You rose on the third day and with you raised Adam from the bonds of Hades and from corruption. Glory to your resurrection, only Lover of the human race!

S4: Let Israel hope in the Lord

from morning watch until night,

from morning watch.

S3: For there is mercy with the Lord and abundant redemption with him.

He will redeem Israel from all his offences.

You offered myrrh to Christ, who lay in the tomb and breathed life and resurrection on all the dead. O God-bearing Mary, when you saw him, you were the first to worship him with tears of joy. Pray that he may grant peace and great mercy to our souls. X2

S2: Every nation, praise the Lord;
every people, acclaim him!

When Magdalene saw Christ dying on the cross, she cried out in bitter grief, “What is this most terrible sight? How can Life die? How can the Creator cease to be? How is the Light overcome by darkness?” Pray that he may grant peace and great mercy to our souls.

S1: For his mercy is strengthened over us and the truth of the Lord remains for ever.

All-glorious Mary, you were filled with great wisdom and knowledge of truth; you longed to be with the one who created you. You announced his passion and proclaimed his condescension to the apostles. Truly you deserve our highest praise; pray that he may grant peace and great mercy to our souls.

Glory: Tone 6

O Mary Magdalene, you were the first to see the resurrection of the one who in compassion raised our nature to its first splendour. You became an apostle to the apostles. As you proclaimed the good news, you cried out to them, “Stop your lamentation and receive my announcement of joy. Come and see the resurrection of Christ, who has granted great mercy to the world.”

Both now: Tone 7

O Theotokos, you were revealed as a mother above nature, for you remained a virgin beyond reason and understanding. No tongue can speak about your wonderful childbearing, for the order of nature was overruled by God. O pure Lady, your conceiving was most glorious. O Virgin, the manner of your giving birth was ineffable. We know that you are the Mother of God and pray fervently to you, “Plead with him to save our souls.”

Phos Ilarón

P/D: Wisdom! Stand upright!

O Jesus Christ, joyful light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy, blessed Father,

when we come to the setting of the sun
 and see the light of evening,
 we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

For it is right at all times to worship you
 with voices of praise,
 O Son of God and Giver of life.
 Therefore the world glorifies you.

Prokeímenenon

Tone 7

O Saviour of the world, you rose from the tomb and raised the human race with your body. O Lord, glory to you!

S1: The Lord reigns and is clothed with majesty;

the Lord has put on power and clothed himself. Ps 92

Come and worship the Lord who rose from the dead. He has enlightened all creation and saved us from the torments of Hades by his death. He has granted us eternal life and great mercy through his third-day resurrection.

S2: For he founded the world which will not be moved. Ps 92

O Christ, you descended into Hades and captured death. O Lord, Lover of the human race, you rose again on the third day and have raised us who glorify your all-powerful resurrection.

S3: O Lord, holiness is right for your house to length of days. Ps 92

O Lord, when you were placed in the tomb like someone asleep, you appeared awesome. But, when you rose on the third day as the almighty Lord, you raised Adam with you. Glory to your resurrection, only Lover of the human race!

Glory: Tone 8

Because she was a disciple faithfully ministering to Christ our God, who in his great compassion willingly assumed my poverty, Mary Magdalene saw him stretched on the tree and enclosed within a tomb. She cried out with flowing tears, “What strange sight can I see? You give life to the dead, yet you are counted among the dead. How can I carry myrrh to you, when you have removed from me the stench of demons? How can I shed tears for you, when you wiped away the tears of Eve? Yet, O King of all, you appeared as a gardener and took away the burning heat with the dew of your words.” You said to her, “Go to my brothers and announce the joy of the Gospel to them. For I will ascend to the Father, to my God and your God, so that I can give great mercy to the world.

Both now:

O unwedded virgin, mother of the Most High God, you ineffably conceived God in the flesh. O most pure Lady, accept the cries of your servants. Grant purification for offences to everyone. Receive our prayers and pray that our souls may be saved.

Song of Simeon

B/P: O Master, now let your servant depart in peace
 according to your word,
² for my eyes have seen your salvation,
 which you have prepared before all peoples,
³ a light of revelation for the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Creator. Glory to the Lord who lived in you! Glory to the one who comes from you! Glory to the one who frees us through your Child!

Kathísma 1

Tone 7

After the Life had been laid in the tomb and the seal had been placed on the stone, the soldiers guarded Christ like a sleeping King. The angels glorified him as the immortal God and the women cried out, “The Lord has risen and granted the world great mercy.”

Glory:

You have despoiled death by your three days’ burial in the tomb. You have raised corrupt man by your life-bearing resurrection. Glory to you, O Christ our God, Lover of the human race!

Both now:

O Virgin-Theotokos, continually pray to Christ our God to save our souls, for he was crucified, rose for us and destroyed the power of death.

Kathísma 2

O Christ our God, while the sepulchre was sealed, you rose from the tomb as Life. While the doors were closed, you stood in the midst of your disciples. O Resurrection of all, you renew a right Spirit within us through them, for you are great in mercy.

Glory:

O King of all, the women ran to the tomb with tears and carried spices, while the soldiers kept their watch over you. They said to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us?” The Angel of Great Counsel has risen and tramples down death. Glory to you, almighty Lord!

Both now:

Hail, O virgin Theotokos, full of grace, harbour and protection for the race of men! The Rescuer of the world was made flesh through you. Only you are both mother and virgin, ever-blessed and glorified. Plead with Christ our God to grant peace to the world.

Evlogitária

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.
The assembly of angels was amazed when it saw you among the dead. O Saviour, by destroying the power of death, you raised Adam with you and freed everyone from Hades.

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.
The radiant angel cried to the Myrrhbearers from the tomb, "Why do you women mingle myrrh with your tears? Look at the tomb and understand. The Saviour has risen from the tomb."

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.
The Myrrhbearers ran sorrowfully to your tomb very early in the morning, but an angel came to them and said, "The time for sorrow has come to an end. Do not weep, but announce the resurrection to the apostles."

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.
The Myrrhbearers were sorrowful as they approached your tomb, but the angel said to them, Why do you number the Living among the dead? As God he has risen from the tomb."

Glory:

We worship the Father, his Son and the Holy Spirit, the Holy Trinity, one in Being. We cry with the Seraphim, "Holy, Holy, Holy are you, O Lord."

Both now:

O Virgin, because you gave birth to the Giver of Life, you rescued Adam from his sin. You gave Eve joy instead of sadness. The Divine Man who was born from you has restored to life those who had fallen from it.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory to you, O God. (X3)

O our God and our hope, glory to you.

Antiphon 1 Ps 125

O Saviour, since you turned the captivity of Zion from error, make me also live and raise me from slavery to passions.
The man who sows tribulation in the South with tears of fasting will reap sheaves of eternal life-giving food.

Glory: Both now:

The fountain of divine treasury is in the Holy Spirit,
from whom come wisdom, understanding and fear;
praise, honour, glory and might are his due.

Antiphon 2 Ps 126

If the Lord does not build the house of the soul,
we labour in vain,
for no work or word is perfected without him.
The saints from the fruit of the womb, who are spiritually moved,
produce the fatherly teaching of adoption as sons.

Glory: Both now:

Everything has its being through the Holy Spirit,
for he is God before all, Master of all,
unapproachable Light and Life of all.

Antiphon 3 Ps 127

Those who fear the Lord and find the way of life are blessed with undefiled glory both now and forever.
As you see your offspring like saplings around your table,
rejoice and exult when you offer them to Christ,
the Chief Shepherd.

Glory: Both now:

An abundance of graces, the wealth of glory and the great depth of judgments are in the Holy Spirit.
We must worship him with the same glory
as the Father and the Son.

Prokeímenon Ps 9

R: O Lord my God, arise, let your hand be raised;
and never forget the needy.

S: O Lord, I will thank you with all my heart.

Kontákion

The dominion of death can no longer hold the human race captive, for Christ descended; he shattered and destroyed its powers. Hades is bound, while the prophets rejoice and cry with one voice, “The Saviour has come to those with faith; O faithful, enter the resurrection.”

Íkos

Today death, Hades and the lowest depths of the earth quake with terror at the presence of one of the Trinity. The earth shakes and the gatekeepers of Hades are struck with terror at seeing you. But all creation rejoices with the prophets and sings a song of victory to you, our Redeemer and God, for you destroyed the power of death. Let us also shout and cry aloud to Adam and to those who are sprung from him, “He has introduced the cross to him; O faithful, enter the resurrection.”

Synaxáron

Today we remember the holy myrrh-bearer and equal-to-the apostles, Mary Magdalene. She kept vigil beside the cross and went early to the tomb where she was greeted by an angel. The one who heard you say, “Do not touch me,” is now joyful in your bodiless embrace. On the Twenty-Second she passed over to you.

Together with her we remember:

Martyr Markélla of Chios

O God, have mercy on us through their holy prayers. Amen.

Katavasías

1: I will open my mouth and be filled with the spirit. I will sing a song to the Queen and Mother. I will come, rejoice in the feast and praise all her glory.

3: O Theotokos, living and inexhaustible fountain, in your divine glory spiritually establish your choir which is assembled in chorus. Make them worthy to receive crowns of glory in your mercy.

4: The counsel of God cannot be scrutinised. The Most High was incarnate from a Virgin. The prophet Habakkuk foresaw this and cried, “Glory to your power, O God!”

5: O Virgin, all creation was amazed at your divine glory, for you knew no man. You held thee God of all in your womb and gave birth to the eternal Son. You order salvation for all those who praise you.

6: O devout people, come and clap hands while we observe this divine and most precious feast of the Mother of God. Let us glorify God who was born from her.

7: The devout youths worshipped the Creator rather than created things. They courageously trampled on the threatening fire and joyfully sang, “Blessed are you, most praised Lord, the God of our fathers.”

8: Let us praise, bless and worship the Lord. The Lord who was born from the Theotokos saved the holy children in the furnace. The one who was then prefigured has now been born on earth and gathers the whole inhabited earth to sing, “All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord and exalt him above all for ever.

Eothinón Gospel 8

From the Holy Gospel according to John (20:11-18)

At that time Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb; ¹² and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. ¹³

They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." ¹⁴ Saying this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom do you seek?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). ¹⁷ Jesus said to her, "Do not hold me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." ¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went and said to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

R: Glory to you, O Lord, glory to you.

Resurrection Ode

P/R: Now that we have seen the resurrection of Christ, let us worship the holy Lord Jesus, the only sinless one. O Christ, we venerate your cross, and praise and glorify your holy resurrection; for you are our God, and we know no one else apart from you. We address your name. All you faithful, come and venerate Christ's holy resurrection. For see, joy has come into all the world through the cross. Let us always bless the Lord and praise his resurrection. For he has destroyed death by death by enduring the cross for us.

Psalm 50

O God, have mercy on me in your abundant mercy and wipe out my offence through your great pity.
4 Wash me thoroughly from my lawless act
and cleanse me from my sin, 5 for I know my lawlessness and my sin is always before me.
6 I have sinned against you alone and done what is evil before you 6b so that you might be right in your words and overcome when you are judged, 7 for see, I was conceived in lawlessness and my mother desired me in sin, 8 for see, you have loved truth and shown me the mysteries and secrets of your wisdom.
9 You will sprinkle me with hyssop and I will be clean;
you will wash me and I will become whiter than snow.
10 You will make me hear about joy and gladness;
humbled bones will rejoice.
11 Turn your face from my sins
and wipe out all my lawlessness.
12 O God, make a pure heart within me
and renew an upright spirit within me.
13 Do not banish me from your presence or remove your Holy Spirit from me.
14 Restore your saving joy to me and strengthen me with your directing Spirit.
15 I will teach the lawless your ways and the ungodly will return to you.
16 O God, God of my salvation, free me from bloodshed,
then my tongue will rejoice in your justice.
17 O Lord, you will open my lips
and my mouth will announce your praise, 18 for if you had wanted sacrifice, I would have given it;
you will not be pleased with burnt offerings.
19 Sacrifice for God is a broken spirit;
God will not despise a broken and humbled heart.
20 O Lord, be good to Zion in your pleasure and let the walls of Jerusalem be built,

²¹ then you will be pleased with a just sacrifice,
with an offering and burnt sacrifices;
then they will offer calves on your altar.

Glory: Tone 6

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of the apostles.

Both now:

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of the Theotokos.

Have mercy:

Jesus has risen from the tomb as he foretold and grants us eternal life and great mercy.

Mary was truly amazed when she saw two angels in the tomb. To you, O God, is due a song.

Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his powers.
To you, O God, is due a song.

S8: This glory will be for all his holy ones.
Christ is risen from the dead; he has shattered the chains of death. O earth, proclaim great joy; O heavens, praise the glory of God.

praise him for the abundance of his majesty.
We continually praise the resurrection of Christ, for the holy Lord Jesus, who has revealed the resurrection, has saved us from our sins.

S5: Praise him with the trumpet sound;

praise him with lute and harp.

What shall we give to the Lord in return for all his bounty to us? For our sake God came and lived among men. The Word became flesh and lived among us because of our corrupt nature. He is the Benefactor of the ungrateful, the Rescuer of captives, the Sun of justice of those sitting in darkness, the passionless Lord on the cross, the Light in Hades and the Resurrection for the fallen. Let us cry out to him, “Our God, glory to you!”

S4: Praise him with cymbal and dance;
praise him with strings and flute.

O Mary, the Word of the Father sanctified you. He rescued you from evil spirits. You became his disciple and were filled with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Through the Lord’s merciful appearance on earth, you were purified from the pollution of sin.

S2: Her sound has gone out into all the earth and her words to the ends of the world. Ps 18

You loved the Creator of all good, who in his compassion made our nature divine. O Mary, you zealously followed him and were obedient to his divine commands. You came to the tomb of the Saviour with tears, then were the first to see the divine resurrection. You were revealed as a messenger of the Gospel when you cried, “Rejoice, for Christ has risen!”

S1: God is marvellous in his saints;
the God of Israel will give power and strength to his people.

O Mary Magdalene, our first mother Eve rejoices with you for all time, for she sees the one who deceived her and banished her from Paradise, as he is trampled under the feet of the Myrrh-bearing women. The radiance of your memorial has radiated to everyone and enlightens those who faithfully sing your praises, for you banish the dark temptations of evil demons.

Glory:

After the divine passion and awesome resurrection of the Saviour, you hurried along your way as a glorious disciple of the Word. You announced everywhere the precious words of the Gospel and drew into your net many who had been led astray through ignorance.

Both now: Tone 2

O Virgin Theotokos, you are most blessed, for through the One who was born of you, Hades has been captured and Adam recalled. The curse has been annulled, and Eve set free. Death has been slain, so we are given life. Blessed is Christ our God, whose good will it was. Glory to you!

Apolytikia

You destroyed death by your cross, opened Paradise to the thief and changed the weeping of the myrrh-bearers into joy. O Christ our God, you commanded your disciples to proclaim that you have risen and grant the world great mercy.

O holy Mary Magdalene, in keeping his commandments and laws, you followed Christ, who for our sake was born from a Virgin. As we celebrate your most holy memory today, we receive forgiveness of sins through your prayers.

Of the Church

Kontákion

O unfailing protection of Christians and unchanging mediator before the Creator, do not despise the prayers of us sinners, but in your goodness extend your help to those of us who faithfully cry to you, "O Theotokos, you always protect those who honour you, so hurry to intercede for us and hasten to plead for us."

Triságion

Prokeímenon Ps 28 Tone 7

R: The Lord will give strength to his people;
the Lord will bless his people with peace.

S: Bring to the Lord, O sons of God;
Bring to the Lord glory and honour.

Apóstolos

Preserve Christian unity.

From the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians (1:10-17)

Brothers, I appeal to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree, that there are no disagreements among you and that you are united with the same mind and the same judgement. ¹¹ For it has been reported to me by Chlóe's people that there is quarrelling among you, my brothers. ¹² What I mean is that each one of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apóllos," or "I belong to Céphas," or "I belong to Christ." ¹³ Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptised in the name of Paul? ¹⁴ I am thankful that I baptised none of you except Crispus and Gáius; ¹⁵ in case anyone should say that you were baptised in my name. ¹⁶ (I did baptise also the household of Stéphanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptised anyone else.) ¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, in case the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Alleluia Ps 91 Tone 7

S1: It is good to thank the Lord,
and make music to your name, O Most High, S2: To announce your mercy in the morning and your truth at night.

Sunday Week 8

The feeding of the five thousand

From the Holy Gospel according to Matthew (14:14-22)

At that time Jesus saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. ¹⁵ When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." ¹⁶ Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." ¹⁷ They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." ¹⁸ And he said, "Bring them here to me." ¹⁹ Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰ And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. ²¹ And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children. ²² Then he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.

Communion Ps 148

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights. Alleluia!
