Lord I have cried

Tone 4

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

O Lord, listen to me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

Note the voice of my plea when I cry to you.

O Lord, listen to me.

<sup>2</sup> Let my prayer be directed before you like incense,
the raising of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

O Lord, listen to me.

S10: Lead my soul from prison that I may acknowledge your name.
O Christ our God, we always honour your life-giving cross and glorify your resurrection on the third day. O almighty Lord, you have renewed the corrupt nature of the human race and revealed our way to heaven through it, for you are good and the Lover of the human race.

S9: The just will wait for me until you reward me.

O Saviour, you abolished the penalty of the tree of disobedience by being nailed willingly to the tree of the cross. O almighty Lord, you broke the bonds of death as God by descending to Hades. Therefore we adore your resurrection from the dead and sing in joy, “Glory to you, O almighty Lord!”

S8: O Lord, I have cried to you from the depths;

O Lord listen to my voice.

O Lord, you smashed the gates of Hades and demolished the kingdom of death by your death. You rescued the human race from corruption and granted the world life, incorruption and great mercy.

S7: Let your ears note the voice of my plea.

O people, come and sing about the Saviour's resurrection on the third day. We have all been freed by it from the unbreakable bonds of Hades; we have received life and incorruption. Therefore we cry in unison, "You were crucified, buried and rose again. Unique Lover of the human race, save us by your resurrection."

S6: O Lord, if you mark offences, who will stand?

But there is forgiveness with you.

O Saviour, angels and mortals sing about your resurrection on the third day. The ends of the inhabited earth have been enlightened by it and we have been rescued from bondage to the enemy. We cry, "O Life-creating and almighty Saviour, save us by your resurrection."

S5: O Lord, I have waited for you for your name's sake;

my soul has waited for your word,

my soul has hoped in the Lord.

O Christ our God, you have shattered the gates of brass and destroyed the chains of death. You have raised the fallen human race. Therefore we cry in unison, "O Lord risen from the dead, glory to you!"

Tone 4

S4: Let Israel hope in the Lord from morning watch until night, from morning watch.

S3: For there is mercy with the Lord and abundant redemption with him.

He will redeem Israel from all his offences.

Tone 4

You were meek in soul and heart, and wounded with divine love. You withdrew from the turmoil of life in a holy ascent. Most blessed father, you were armed with the weapon of the Cross, you advanced on the demons and waged war. You achieved a crown of victory for yourself and now live in the splendour of the saints. Together with them, request salvation from sins, peace and enlightenment for us. X2

S2: Every nation, praise the Lord; every people, acclaim him!

O glorious father, you brilliantly enlightened the world with radiant beams of healing. You dispelled the deep darkness of infirmities. Therefore, everyone acknowledges you to be another sun and the confirmation of monastics, for through the divine Spirit you guide those who are saved. O

Hilarion, we now celebrate your radiant and saving memory, and receive remission of sins through you.

S1: For his mercy is strengthened over us and the truth of the Lord remains for ever.

O father, you made the carnal passions subject to your reasonable soul by abstinence. O venerable saint you were adorned with wings of dispassion. You received the grace to heal, to banish evil spirits and to save those who turn to you. Therefore, O Hilarion, rightly glorious saint, the choirs of monastics bless you and all creation honours your struggles.

Glory: Tone 2

O Hilarion, you bore the wisdom of perfection from your youth and took on yourself the yoke of Christ. You imitated the life of the godly Anthony and emulated his virtue in many ways. You wasted the flesh which chaffed at the bit like a young stallion; your soul needed to tame it in order to finish the ascetic race. Most blessed father and miraculous God-bearer, request purification and great mercy for those who lovingly celebrate your memory.

Both now: Tone 4

O Virgin, the prophet David was a forefather of God through you. He spoke beforehand about you in songs to the Lord who worked wonders in you, "At your right hand stood the queen." God, who was well-pleased to be incarnate from you without a father, announced you as mother and source of Life. He wanted to renew his fallen image, which had been corrupted by passion, so he found the lost sheep wandering on the mountain, placed it on his shoulders and brought it to his Father. He joined it to the heavenly powers by his own will. O Theotokos, Christ who has great and rich mercy, has saved the world.

Phos Ilarón

P/D: Wisdom! Stand upright!

O Jesus Christ, joyful light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy, blessed Father, when we come to the setting of the sun
and see the light of evening,
we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

For it is right at all times to worship you
 with voices of praise,
 O Son of God and Giver of life.
 Therefore the world glorifies you.

Prokeímenon

P/D: The Evening Prokeimenon

R: The Lord reigns and is clothed with majesty.

S1: The Lord has put on power and clothed himself.

S2: He founded the world, which will not be moved.

Ektení

Prayer

O Lord, allow us this night to be guarded from sin. Blessed are you, O Lord, God of our fathers! Praised and glorified be your name for ever. Amen. O Lord, let your mercy be on us, for we have hoped in you. Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes. Blessed are you, O Master; make me understand your statutes. Blessed are you, O Holy One; enlighten me with your statutes. O Lord, your mercy lasts for ever; do not overlook the work of your hands. To you belongs worship, to you belongs praise, to you belongs glory, to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

Plirotiká

Prayer

P: Peace be with you all. R: And with your spirit

D: Bow down your heads to the Lord. R: To you, O Lord.

P: For blessed and glorified is the power of your Kingdom, of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.
Amen.

Apósticha

Tone 4

O Lord, you have annulled our ancestral curse by ascending the cross. You have freed those in chains throughout the ages by descending to Hades and have granted incorruption to the human race. Therefore we glorify your life-giving and saving resurrection with hymns.

S1: The Lord reigns and is clothed with majesty;
the Lord has put on power and clothed himself. Ps 92

Uniquely-powerful Lord, you made the whole creation quake by hanging on the tree. You have raised those who lived in the tombs by being laid in the tomb; you have granted life and incorruption to the human race. Therefore we glorify your resurrection on the third day with hymns.

S2: For he founded the world which will not be moved. Ps 92

O Christ, a lawless people handed you over to Pilate and condemned you to be crucified, therefore they proved themselves ungrateful before their Benefactor. You willingly endured burial, rose by your own power on the third day and granted us eternal life and great mercy, for you are God.

S3: O Lord, holiness is right for your house to length of days. Ps 92

The women reached your tomb with tears, searched for you, but did not find you. They cried out with grief, “Woe to us! Our Saviour, King of all, how were you stolen? What place can hold your life-bearing body?” But an angel replied to them, “Do not weep but go and proclaim that the Lord has risen and grants us joy, for he is the uniquely-compassionate Lord.”

Glory: Tone 8

The renowned Hilarion was filled with the Holy Spirit and conquered the snares of the demons. Because he was armed with the cross and rejoiced in it, by his word he healed all diseases, passions of the soul and bodily infirmities. O Christ, O Lover of the human race, send us peace through his prayers.

Both now:

O pure Virgin, I am the barren tree which was mentioned by our God, for in no way have I produced the fruit of salvation. I am afraid of being cut down and thrown into the perpetual fire. Therefore I implore you, “O spotless Virgin, rescue me and make me yield fruit through your mediation with your Son.”

Song of Simeon

B/P: O Master, now let your servant depart in peace

according to your word, <sup>2</sup> for my eyes have seen your salvation,
 which you have prepared before all peoples, <sup>3</sup> a light of revelation for the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Trisagion Prayers

Apolytikia

Tone 4

When the women disciples of the Lord learnt from the angel the joyful message of your resurrection, they cast away the ancestral curse and elatedly told the Apostles, “Death is overthrown. Christ our God has risen and grants the world great mercy.”

Tone 8

O holy father Hilarion, your abundant tears and deep sighs of love made your labour a hundred times fruitful. You became a good shepherd and granted forgiveness to those who came to you. Therefore intercede with Christ our God to save our souls.

Tone 8

O good Lord, you were born from a virgin for us. You suffered crucifixion, plundered death through death and, as God, you revealed the resurrection. Do not despise those whom you have created with your own hand, but, O merciful Lord, reveal your love for the human race. O Saviour, receive the Theotokos, who gave birth to you, for she is an intercessor, and save your despairing people.

Dismissal

ORTHROS

God is the Lord Ps 117

R: God is the Lord and has appeared to us.

Blessed is the one who comes in the Lord's name. Ps 117

S1: Thank the Lord, for he is good,
 for his mercy lasts for ever.

S2: All the nations surrounded me,

but I opposed them in the Lord's name.

S3: This is the Lord's doing and it is wonderful in our eyes.

Apolytikia

Tone 4

When the women disciples of the Lord learnt from the angel the joyful message of your resurrection, they cast away the ancestral curse and elatedly told the Apostles, "Death is overthrown. Christ our God has risen and grants the world great mercy."

Tone 8

O holy father Hilarion, your abundant tears and deep sighs of love made your labour a hundred times fruitful. You became a good shepherd and granted forgiveness to those who came to you. Therefore intercede with Christ our God to save our souls.

Tone 8

O good Lord, you were born from a virgin for us. You suffered crucifixion, plundered death through death and, as God, you revealed the resurrection. Do not despise those whom you have created with your own hand, but, O merciful Lord, reveal your love for the human race. O Saviour, receive the Theotokos, who gave birth to you, for she is an intercessor, and save your despairing people.

Small Litany

P: For yours is the might, and yours is the kingdom, the power and the glory of the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen

Kathisma 1

Tone 4

The myrrh-bearing women looked at the entrance of the tomb. They were unable to bear the sight of the flaming angel, trembled with wonder and said, "Can it be that the one who opened Paradise to the Thief has been stolen? Or is he risen, who before his passion proclaimed his resurrection? Christ is risen indeed; he grants life and resurrection to those in Hades."

Glory:

O Saviour, you suffered the cross by your free will. Mortal men laid you in a new tomb, although you are the Lord who founded the ends of the earth with your word. Therefore the alien was held in bondage and death was plundered without mercy. Everyone in Hades cried out at your life-bearing resurrection, “Christ, the Giver of life, is risen and will remain for ever!”

Both now:

O Theotokos, your seedless conceiving was beyond nature; Joseph was struck with wonder and called to mind the fleece wet with dew, the bush which burned, yet was not consumed, and the rod of Aaron which budded. In witness to these things, your betrothed guardian cried to the priests, “A Virgin bears a child and after childbearing remains a virgin.”

Kathísma 2

O Saviour, Christ our God, you rose from Hades as immortal and raised the world with you by your resurrection. O Merciful Lord, you have broken in pieces the dominion of death and revealed the resurrection to everyone. Therefore we glorify you, only Lover of the human race.

Glory:

Gabriel came down from above and approached the stone where the Rock of Life lay. He was clothed in white and cried out to the mourners, “Stop your tears and wailing, for you have Mercy with you for ever. Take courage, for the Lord whom you seek with tears has truly woken. Therefore cry out to the Apostles that the Lord has risen.”

Both now:

O Pure Virgin, all the choirs of angels were struck with wonder at the dread mystery of your conceiving. “How was it that the one whose hand held everything firm with a mere nod, was held in your arms as a mortal man? How was it that the Lord who was before the ages, was born from you? How was it that the one who feeds everything with breath was suckled at the breast?” They glorify you with hymns as the true Theotokos.

Evlogitária

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.

The assembly of angels was amazed when it saw you among the dead. O Saviour, by destroying the power of death, you raised Adam with you and freed everyone from Hades.

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.

The radiant angel cried to the Myrrhbearers from the tomb, "Why do you women mingle myrrh with your tears? Look at the tomb and understand. The Saviour has risen from the tomb."

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.

The Myrrhbearers ran sorrowfully to your tomb very early in the morning, but an angel came to them and said, "The time for sorrow has come to an end. Do not weep, but announce the resurrection to the apostles."

Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes.

The Myrrhbearers were sorrowful as they approached your tomb, but the angel said to them, Why do you number the Living among the dead? As God he has risen from the tomb."

Glory:

We worship the Father, his Son and the Holy Spirit, the Holy Trinity, one in Being. We cry with the Seraphim, "Holy, Holy, Holy are you, O Lord."

Both now:

O Virgin, because you gave birth to the Giver of Life, you rescued Adam from his sin. You gave Eve joy instead of sadness. The Divine Man who was born from you has restored to life those who had fallen from it.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory to you, O God. (X3)

O our God and our hope, glory to you.

Small Litany

P: For blessed is your name, and glorified is your kingdom, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen

Ypakói

Read without note

O Christ, the Myrrh-bearers hurried to announce to the Apostles the glad news of your all-glorious resurrection. They proclaimed that you had risen as God and granted the world great mercy.

Anaváthmi Tone 4

Antiphon 1 Ps 128

My Saviour, many passions have fought against me from my youth, but help and save me.

May those who hate Zion be shamed by the Lord;
they will be withered like grass by fire.

Glory: Both now:

Every soul lives through the Holy Spirit;
it is exalted through purity and illuminated by the Triune Unity in a sacred mystery.

Antiphon 2 Ps 129

O Lord, I have cried fervently from the depths of my soul;
let your divine ears listen to me.

Everyone who has hoped in the Lord is higher than everyone who grieves.

Glory: Both now:

The streams of grace gush through the Holy Spirit;
they water all creation to produce life.

Antiphon 3 Ps 130

O Word, let my heart be raised to you;
let none of the world's pleasures enchant me back to earth.

As each of us has affection for his mother,
so we must have even more ardent love for the Lord.

Glory: Both now:

The wealth of divine knowledge, heavenly vision and wisdom comes from the Holy Spirit;
for the Word unveils all the Father's teaching through him.

Prokeímenon Ps 43

R: O Lord, rise and help us;
free us for your name's sake.

S: O God, we have heard with our ears.

Small Litany

For you are the King of Peace and Saviour of our souls, and we send up glory to you, to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, always, now and for ever, and to the ages of ages. Amen

Kontákion

Read without note

My Saviour and Redeemer raised those born on earth from their chains, for he is God. He shattered the gates of Hades and has risen on the third day as Master.

Íkos

Let all of us who are born on earth sing the praises of Christ, the Giver of life. He rose from the dead, came from the tomb on the third day and today has smashed the gates of death by his strength. He set free Adam and Eve, killed Hades and destroyed the sting of death. Let us cry aloud in thanksgiving with our generous praise, for he alone is the mighty God and has risen on the third day as Master.

Synaxáron

Today we remember our renowned father Hilarion the Great of Palestine who lived in the Fourth Century. He was educated at Alexandria where he became a Christian. He became a disciple of Anthony. After his parents died he gave away all his possessions and went to live in the desert at Maiuma near Gaza. He cut his hair once a year and clothed himself in rags, but he knew the Holy Scriptures by heart. He is regarded as the father of Palestinian monasticism. On the Twenty First he peacefully fell asleep without fear and closed his eyes.

Together with him we remember:

Monk Hilarion of the Kiev Caves C11

Hieromonk Christódoulos of Patmos C11

Katavasías

1: I will open my mouth and be filled with the spirit. I will sing a song to the Queen and Mother. I will come, rejoice in the feast and praise all her glory.

3: O Theotokos, living and inexhaustible fountain, strengthen those who are united in spiritual fellowship and who sing your praises. Make them worthy to receive crowns of glory in your divine glory.

4: The counsel of God cannot be scrutinised. The Most High was incarnate from a Virgin. The prophet Habakkuk foresaw this and cried, “Glory to your power, O God!”

5: O Virgin, all creation was amazed at your divine glory, for you knew no man. You held thee God of all in your womb and gave birth to the eternal Son. You order salvation for all those who praise you.

6: O devout people, come and clap hands while we observe this divine and most precious feast of the Mother of God. Let us glorify God who was born from her.

7: The devout youths worshipped the Creator rather than created things. They courageously trampled on the threatening fire and joyfully sang, “Blessed are you, most praised Lord, the God of our fathers.”

8: Let us praise, bless and worship the Lord. The Lord who was born from the Theotokos saved the holy children in the furnace. The one who was then prefigured has now been born on earth and gathers the whole inhabited earth to sing, “All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord and exalt him above all for ever.

Eothinón Gospel 10

From the Holy Gospel according to John (21:1-14)

At that time Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he revealed himself in this way. <sup>2</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. <sup>3</sup> Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat; but that night they caught nothing. <sup>4</sup> Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any fish?" They answered him, "No." <sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, for the quantity of fish. <sup>7</sup> That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his clothes, for he was stripped for work, and sprang into the sea. <sup>8</sup> But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards off. <sup>9</sup> When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread. <sup>10</sup> Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." <sup>11</sup> So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and although there were so many, the net was not torn. <sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup> Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. <sup>14</sup> This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

R: Glory to you, O Lord, glory to you.

Resurrection Ode

P/R: Now that we have seen the resurrection of Christ, let us worship the holy Lord Jesus, the only sinless one. O Christ, we venerate your cross, and praise and glorify your holy resurrection; for you are our God, and we know no one else apart from you. We address your name. All you faithful, come and venerate Christ's holy resurrection. For see, joy has come into all the world through the cross. Let us always bless the Lord and praise his resurrection. For he has destroyed death by death by enduring the cross for us.

Psalm 50

O God, have mercy on me in your abundant mercy and wipe out my offence through your great pity.
<sup>4</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my lawless act
 and cleanse me from my sin, <sup>5</sup> for I know my lawlessness and my sin is always before me.
<sup>6</sup> I have sinned against you alone and done what is evil before you <sup>6b</sup> so that you might be right in your words and overcome when you are judged, <sup>7</sup> for see, I was conceived in lawlessness and my mother desired me in sin, <sup>8</sup> for see, you have loved truth and shown me the mysteries and secrets of your wisdom.
<sup>9</sup> You will sprinkle me with hyssop and I will be clean;
 you will wash me and I will become whiter than snow.
<sup>10</sup> You will make me hear about joy and gladness;
 humbled bones will rejoice.
<sup>11</sup> Turn your face from my sins and wipe out all my lawlessness.
<sup>12</sup> O God, make a pure heart within me and renew an upright spirit within me.
<sup>13</sup> Do not banish me from your presence or remove your Holy Spirit from me.
<sup>14</sup> Restore your saving joy to me and strengthen me with your directing Spirit.
<sup>15</sup> I will teach the lawless your ways and the ungodly will return to you.
<sup>16</sup> O God, God of my salvation, free me from bloodshed,
then my tongue will rejoice in your justice.
<sup>17</sup> O Lord, you will open my lips and my mouth will announce your praise, <sup>18</sup> for if you had wanted sacrifice, I would have given it;
 you will not be pleased with burnt offerings.
<sup>19</sup> Sacrifice for God is a broken spirit;

God will not despise a broken and humbled heart.

<sup>20</sup> O Lord, be good to Zion in your pleasure and let the walls of Jerusalem be built,

<sup>21</sup> then you will be pleased with a just sacrifice, with an offering and burnt sacrifices;
then they will offer calves on your altar.

Glory: Tone 6

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of the apostles.

Both now:

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of the Theotokos.

Jesus has risen from the tomb as he foretold and grants us eternal life and great mercy.

Tone 6

The sons of Zebedee, together with Peter, Thomas, Nathaniel of Cana and two other disciples, were fishing in the Sea of Tiberius. At Christ's command they cast the net on the right side and hauled in many fish. Peter recognised him and swam to him. Then Jesus took bread and fish, and gave it to them. This was the third time that he was revealed to his disciples.

Tone 3

O honourable father, boast of holy monks, the Lord who knows the secrets of every heart saw your joy and purity. He made you a light for the world.

O Virgin, you brought the Lord, who is the Creator of all the ages and of the angels, into the world. Plead with him to let your faithful servants stand near him at his right hand in heaven.

Praises

Let everything with breath
praise the Lord.
Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.
To you, O God, is due a song.

Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his powers.
To you, O God, is due a song.

S8: This glory will be for all his holy ones.
Almighty Lord, you suffered the cross and death, and rose from the dead.
We glorify your resurrection.

S7: Praise God in his saints;

S6: Praise him for his mighty deeds;

praise him for the abundance of his majesty.

O Christ our Saviour, lead us into your truth through your cross and rescue us from the snares of the enemy; you have risen from the dead. O Lord, Lover of the human race, extend your arm and, at the prayers of your saints, raise us who have fallen because of sin.

S5: Praise him with the trumpet sound;

praise him with lute and harp.

O uniquely-fathered Word of God, in your love for the human race you came to earth without leaving the bosom of the Father. You have granted the human race immortality by your resurrection, for you alone are all-powerful.

praise him with joyful cymbals.

Let everything with breath praise the Lord.

O Hilarion, you were totally consecrated throughout life to the Lord. You disciplined your flesh from childhood through the practice of virtue. You raised your soul's eyes because of radiant visions. You received God's blessings, obtained the grace to heal and the treasure to work wonders. You share your rich gifts with anyone in need. Boldly pray to the Lord for our souls. X2

S2: Blessed is the man who fears the Lord. Ps 111

O renowned father Hilarion, after you had splendidly received the light from the Light of the Triple Sun, you travelled like the Daystar from one end of the earth to another. You shone over everyone with the brilliance of your miracles. Therefore you are acknowledged as a prophet, heavenly wonderworker and man inspired by God, by those who have shared in your blessings, enjoyed your healing grace and received the fruit of salvation through your divine teaching.

S1: The death of his saints is precious in the Lord's sight. Ps 115
 Through grace you disowned the pleasures of this life and all material goods. You graduated towards the unfailing spiritual treasures and were joined in purity to the only pure One. You lived like an angel in the zeal of your spirit and the purity of your soul, despite participating in the visible world. Because you are always in Christ's presence, boldly plead with the Master of all for our souls.

Glory: Tone 6

O Christ, after your descent to Hades and your resurrection from the dead, the disciples were rightly sorrowful and grieved at your absence. They went back to their work, attending their nets and boats. That night they caught nothing, but as day was breaking you appeared to them and called out as Lord of all, "Cast the net on the right side." They cast the net, caught many fish and found a wonderful meal prepared on the land from which they partook at once. O Lord and Lover of The human race, make us worthy now to enjoy it with them in spirit.

Both now: Tone 2

O Virgin Theotokos, you are most blessed, for through the One who was born of you, Hades has been captured and Adam recalled. The curse has been annulled, and Eve set free. Death has been slain, so we are given life. Blessed is Christ our God, whose good will it was. Glory to you!

Apóstolos

Being crucified with Christ

From the Letter of Paul to the Galatians (2:16-20)

Brothers, we know that a man is not made just by works of the law, but through faith in Jesus Christ. Even we have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be made just by faith in Christ, and not by works of the law, because no one will be made just by works of the law. <sup>17</sup> But if, in our endeavour to be made just in Christ, we ourselves were found to be sinners, is Christ then an agent of sin? Certainly not! <sup>18</sup> But if I build up again those things which I tore down, then I prove myself an offender. <sup>19</sup> For I died to the law through the law, so that I might live for God. <sup>20</sup> I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. The life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Alleluia Ps 44 Tone 4

S1: Bend the bow, prosper and rule for truth, gentleness and justice;
your right hand will amazingly guide you.

S2: You have loved justice and hated lawlessness, so God your God has anointed you with joyful oil over your companions.

Sunday Luke 7

The healing of Jairus' daughter

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke (8:41-56)

At that time there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue; and falling at Jesus' feet he besought him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. As he went, the people pressed round him. <sup>43</sup> And a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years and could not be healed by anyone, <sup>44</sup> came up behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment; and immediately her flow of blood ceased. <sup>45</sup> And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and press upon you!" <sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, "Some one touched me; for I perceive that power has gone forth from me." <sup>47</sup> And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. <sup>48</sup> And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace." <sup>49</sup> While he was still speaking, a man from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." <sup>50</sup> But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she shall be well." <sup>51</sup> And when he came to the house, he permitted no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. <sup>52</sup> And all were weeping and bewailing her; but he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping." <sup>53</sup> And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. <sup>54</sup> But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." <sup>55</sup> And her spirit returned, and she got up at once; and he directed that something should be given her to eat. <sup>56</sup> And her parents were amazed; but he charged them to tell no one what had happened.
