Lord I have cried

Tone 4

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

O Lord, listen to me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

Note the voice of my plea when I cry to you.

O Lord, listen to me.

² Let my prayer be directed before you like incense,
the raising of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

O Lord, listen to me.

S8: O Lord, I have cried to you from the depths;

O Lord listen to my voice.

S7: Let your ears note the voice of my plea.

John is born and he ends Zachariah's silence. The father cannot keep silent when his son, the voice of the Lord, is born. When at first, he did not believe, his tongue was silenced, but now John has been born to free his father. He is the voice of the Word, the Forerunner of Light, who always intercedes for our souls. X2

S6: O Lord, if you mark offences, who will stand?

But there is forgiveness with you.

Today the voice of the Word is born and releases the voice of Zachariah. He reveals the harvest of the Church and frees the bonds of infertility. The candlestick of the Light is approaching. The ray of the sun proclaims his coming for the edification of all and the salvation of our souls.

S5: O Lord, I have waited for you for your name's sake;
my soul has waited for your word,
my soul has hoped in the Lord.

The messenger of God's Word comes from the womb. He is the greatest among those born of women and the highest among the prophets. Wonderful events precede the divine mystery. There was a fruitfulness beyond age, followed by a conception without seed. You have worked miracles for our salvation. Glory to you!

S4: Let Israel hope in the Lord
from morning watch until night, from morning watch.

Today the great Forerunner comes from the infertile womb of Elizabeth. He is the great prophet of prophets; none is greater than he. He is the radiant candlestick of the Light; the voice of the Word and the friend of the Bridegroom. He prepares the Lord's chosen people by purifying them with water before the coming of the Spirit. He is the flower of the desert, the preacher of repentance, the purification for offences. He announced the resurrection even to those in Hades and always prays for our souls.

S3: For there is mercy with the Lord and abundant redemption with him.

He will redeem Israel from all his offences.

Today the prophet and Forerunner appears from the womb. He is John the baptiser of our Lord Jesus Christ. When he saw the Queen come to her servant, carrying in her womb the timeless God, he leapt in his mother's womb and sang for joy.

S2: Every nation, praise the Lord;
every people, acclaim him!

Most glorious wonder! Zachariah asked the angel of the Word, "How can Elizabeth conceive and bear a son? I am an old man and my wife is advanced in years." For his unbelief, he was condemned to silence. Yet today he sees the birth and resumes his speech. He enters into joy, and cries out, "Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people; he has granted the world great mercy."

S1: For his mercy is strengthened over us and the truth of the Lord remains for ever.

Most praised John, universal Apostle, you are the good news of Gabriel, the fruit of infertility, the holy and just flower of the desert and the dear friend of the Bridegroom, Christ. Plead with him to save our souls.

Glory: Tone 6

Today the Forerunner heralds the coming of the Word of God; today Zachariah's tongue is freed from silence, for the father cannot remain silent at the birth of the Forerunner who will boldly proclaim the world's rescue.

Both now:

Elizabeth conceived the Forerunner of grace, while the Virgin conceived the King of glory. Both mothers greeted each other with a kiss. The infant leapt in the womb and praised his Master. His mother was amazed and cried, "Why is this granted me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? He will save the forsaken people, since he possesses great mercy."

P/D: Wisdom! Stand upright!

O Jesus Christ, joyful light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy, blessed Father, when we come to the setting of the sun
and see the light of evening,
we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

For it is right at all times to worship you
with voices of praise,
O Son of God and Giver of life.
Therefore the world glorifies you.

Of the Day

Prophecy 1

From the Book of Genesis (17:15-17, 19, 18:11-14, 21:1-8) NEW God said to Abraham: Sarai your wife - her name will not be called Sarai, but Sarah will be her name. ¹⁶ I will bless her, give you a son from her, and I will bless him and he will become nations, and kings of nations will come from him. ¹⁷ And Abraham fell on his face, and laughed; he spoke in his heart, saying: Can there be a child to one who is a hundred years old, and can Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth? ¹⁹ But God said to Abraham: Indeed, see, Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you must call his name Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to him and to his seed after him. ¹¹ Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in days, and the custom of women had ceased with Sarah. ¹² So Sarah laughed in herself, saying: The thing has not as yet happened to me, even until now, and my lord is old. ¹³ Then the Lord said to Abraham: Why is it that Sarah has laughed in herself, saying: Can I then indeed give birth, for I have grown old. ¹⁴ Can anything be impossible with the Lord? At this time I will return to you in season, and Sarah will have a son. ¹ So the Lord visited Sarah, as he said, and the Lord accomplished for Sarah, as he had spoken. ² So she conceived and bore to Abraham a son in old age, at the set time according as the Lord had spoken to him. ³ And Abraham called the name of his son that was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. ⁴ Abraham circumcised Isaac on the eighth day, as God had commanded him. ⁵ Abraham was a hundred years old when Isaac his son was born to him. ⁶ And Sarah said: The Lord has made laughter for me, for whoever hears will rejoice with me. ⁷ And she said: Who can say to Abraham that Sarah suckles a child, for I have given birth to a child in my old age.⁸ The child grew and was weaned, so Abraham made a great feast the day that his son Isaac had been weaned.

Prophecy 2

From the Book of Judges (13:2-8, 13-14, 17-18, 21)

In those days there was a man from the tribe of Dan, whose name was Manoah; his wife was infertile and did not bear children.³ An angel of the Lord appeared to the woman and said to her: See, you are infertile and have not given birth, but you will conceive a son.⁴ And now be careful; drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean,⁵ for see, you are with child and will give birth to a son. No razor must come near his head, for the child will be a Nazarite to God from the womb.⁶ Then the woman went in and spoke to her husband, saying: A man of God came to me and his appearance was like an angel of God, very awesome.⁷ He said: See, you are with child and will give birth to a son. Now be careful; drink no wine or strong drink, and eat no unclean thing, for the child will be holy to God from the womb until the day of his death.⁸ Then Manoah prayed to the Lord and said: I pray you, O Lord my lord, about the man of God whom you sent; let him now come to us once more and teach us what we shall do to the child about to be born.¹³ And the angel of the Lord said to Manoah: About everything which I spoke to the woman, she must be warned.¹⁴ She must eat nothing that comes from the vine yielding wine, let her not drink wine or strong liquor.¹⁷ And Manoah said to the angel of the Lord: What is your name, so that when your word comes to pass, we may glorify you?¹⁸ Then the angel of the Lord said to him: Why do you ask this about my name, for it is wonderful?²¹ The angel appeared no more to Manoah and his wife.

Prophecy 3

3: From the Prophet Isaiah (40 ff Composite)

Thus says the Lord: Comfort, comfort my people, says God.² Speak, O priests, to the heart of Jerusalem. Comfort her, for her humiliation is accomplished and her sin is put away, for she has received from the Lord's hand double for her sins.³ A voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord; make straight the paths of our God.⁴ Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be brought low. All the crooked ways will become straight, and the rough places plains, and all flesh will see the salvation of God.⁹ Go up to a high mountain, O you bringing glad news to Zion. Raise your voice with strength, O you bringing glad news to Jerusalem. Raise it, do not fear. I the Lord God, I the God of Israel will hear, and will not forsake them;¹⁸ but I will open rivers on the mountains, and fountains in the midst of plains: I will make the desert into pools of water, and a thirsty land into watercourses.⁸ Let the heaven rejoice from above, and let the clouds shower justice. Let the earth bring forth, bloom with mercy, and also bring forth justice. Cry aloud with a voice of joy, proclaim it to the end of the earth, and let this be made known. Say: The Lord has delivered his servant Jacob.²¹ And if they thirst, he in the desert, he will bring water to them from the rock. Rejoice, O infertile woman, who does not give birth; break out and cry, O one who has not been in labour. For the children of the desolate, are more than those from the one with a husband.

Ekteni

Prayer

O Lord, allow us this night to be guarded from sin. Blessed are you, O Lord, God of our fathers! Praised and glorified be your name for ever. Amen. O Lord, let your mercy be on us, for we have hoped in you. Blessed are you, O Lord; teach me your statutes. Blessed are you, O Master; make me understand your statutes. Blessed are you, O Holy One; enlighten me with your statutes. O Lord, your mercy lasts for ever; do not overlook the work of your hands. To you belongs worship, to you belongs praise, to you belongs glory, to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and to ages of ages. Amen.

Plirotiká

Prayer

P: Peace be with you all. R: And with your spirit
D: Bow down your heads to the Lord. R: To you, O Lord.

P: blessed and glorified is the power of your Kingdom, of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 5

Today Elizabeth joyfully gives birth to the last of the prophets and the first of the apostles. He is the earthly angel and the heavenly man, the voice of the Word, the soldier and forerunner of Christ. He rejoiced in the presence of the Promised Lord of Israel and announced the Son of Justice before his own birth. The aged Zachariah is filled with amazement when he sets aside the yoke of silence. As the father of the voice he openly prophesies, "My child, you will be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways. O prophet, Baptist, apostle, messenger, soldier, forerunner, herald of repentance, you serve as a guide to the Light and the voice of the Word, therefore continually plead before him for those of us who faithfully celebrate your memory.

Apósticha

Tone 2

Let us praise John with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. He is the prophet of prophets, the flower of infertility, the citizen of the desert and the greatest among those born of women. O Baptist and Forerunner of the Saviour, since you have boldness before Christ in your birth, plead with him to grant peace to the world and great mercy to our souls.

S1: Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel. Lk 2
The voice of the Word of grace has come, the preacher of the Light of light; he is born from the infertile womb of Elizabeth. O people, rejoice; he comes to prepare the way of salvation for us. He leapt in the womb and worshipped his Master, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world and grants us great mercy.

S2: And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High. Today John blossoms from his mother's infertile womb and becomes the last of the prophets. He boldly announces the coming of the Lord, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."

Glory: Tone 8

Today the voice of Isaiah the prophet is fulfilled in the birth of John, the greatest of prophets. He said, "See, I will send my angel before your face to prepare your way." Now the warrior of the heavenly King has come; he will truly prepare the way for our God. He is a man by nature, but an angel in manner of life. He embraced purity and chastity for ever; now they are his by nature. O faithful people, let us greet him and cry, "Pray for us, that our souls may be saved."

Both now:

Elizabeth greeted the Virgin Mary, "Why is it that the mother of my Lord should come to me? You bear the King, and I, his soldier. You bear the Lawgiver, and I, the herald. You bear the Word, and I, the voice, which preaches the Kingdom of Heaven.

Song of Simeon

B/P: O Master, now let your servant depart in peace
according to your word,
² for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared before all peoples,
³ a light of revelation for the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Tone 4

O prophet and Forerunner of the coming of Christ, although we cannot praise you worthily, we honour you in love on your birthday. For by it you ended your father's silence and your mother's infertility; you proclaimed to the world the incarnation of the Son of God.

Tone 4

O Theotokos, the mystery hidden from eternity and unknown to the angels, is revealed to those on earth through you. God was incarnate from you in a union without confusion and freely endured the cross for us by his own will. He raised the first-formed man and has saved our souls from death.

Kathisma 1

Tone 4

Today the bud of Zachariah has bloomed for us and brings joy to the minds and spirits of the faithful. He is the adornment of the desert and support of the prophets. Therefore he has been revealed as Christ's Forerunner and witness of his coming. Let us then cry out to the Baptist in unity as we sing songs of the Spirit. "O prophet and herald of the truth, intercede that we may be saved."

Glory: Both now: Tone 4

All-pure Virgin Theotokos, I implore you to heal the cruel sufferings of my soul. Grant me forgiveness of the sins which I, the wretched one, have mindlessly committed, polluting my soul and body. Woe is me! What shall I do at the hour when the angels separate my soul from my passion-ridden body? Be then my helper and most fervent intercessor, for I, your servant, have you as my hope.

Kathisma 2

Tone 8

O far-famed John, first among prophets, you were most gloriously born as the true herald of the coming of Christ, far-famed John. As the voice of the Word you cried, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." You prepared the way for the Lord and were revealed to the ends of the earth as the Forerunner of grace, the Baptist and Apostle. Plead with Christ our God to grant forgiveness of sins to those of us who lovingly celebrate your holy memory.

Glory: Both now: Tone 8

All-holy virgin Theotokos, I pray to you, "Heal the passions of my soul and grant me to see my sins, for I have wounded my body and soul in my foolishness. Woe is me! What shall I do in the hour when the angels part my soul from my body? Be then, O Lady, a helper and a warm defender, for I, your unworthy servant, have you as my hope."

Gospel

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke (1:24-25, 57-68, 76, 80)
 In those days Zechariah's wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she hid herself, saying, ²⁵ "Thus the Lord has done to me in the days when he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men." ⁵⁷ Now the time came for Elizabeth to be delivered, and she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸ And her neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. ⁵⁹ And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they would have named him Zechariah after his father, ⁶⁰ but his mother said, "Not so; he shall be called John." ⁶¹ And they said to her, "None of your kindred is called by this name." ⁶² And they made signs to his father, inquiring what he would have him called. ⁶³ And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John." And they all marveled. ⁶⁴ And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵ And fear came on all their neighbors. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea; ⁶⁶ and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be?" For the hand of the Lord was with him. ⁶⁷ And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, ⁶⁸ "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people! ⁷⁶ And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways. ⁸⁰ And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

R: Glory to you, O Lord, glory to you.

Psalm 50

O God, have mercy on me in your abundant mercy and wipe out my offence through your great compassion.
⁴ Wash me thoroughly from my lawless act
 and cleanse me from my sin.
⁵ For I know my lawlessness and my sin is always before me.
⁶ I have sinned against you alone and done this evil before you ^{6b} so that you might be justified in your words and overcome when you are judged.
⁷ For see, I was conceived in lawlessness and my mother gave birth to me in sin.
⁸ For see, you have loved truth and revealed to me the hidden and secret things of your wisdom.
⁹ You will sprinkle me with hyssop and I will be clean;
 you will wash me and I will become whiter than snow.
¹⁰ You will make me hear about joy and gladness;
 the humbled bones will rejoice.
¹¹ Turn your face from my sins
 and wipe out all my lawlessness.
¹² O God, create a pure heart within me
 and renew an upright spirit within me.
¹³ Do not banish me from your presence or remove your Holy Spirit from me.
¹⁴ Restore the joy of your salvation to me and make me firm with your directing Spirit.
¹⁵ I will teach the lawless your ways and the ungodly will return to you.
¹⁶ O God, set me free from the guilt of blood;
 O God of my salvation,
 my tongue will rejoice in your justice.
¹⁷ O Lord, you will open my lips
 and my mouth will proclaim your praise.
¹⁸ For if you had wanted sacrifice, I would have given it;
 you will not be pleased with burnt offerings.
¹⁹ Sacrifice for God is a broken spirit;

God will not despise a broken and humbled heart.

²⁰ O Lord, be good to Zion in your pleasure and let the walls of Jerusalem be built.

²¹ Then you will be pleased with a sacrifice of justice,
 with an offering and burnt sacrifices;
 then they will offer calves on your altar.

Glory: Tone 6

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of your Forerunner.

Both now:

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of the Theotokos.

Have mercy: Tone 2

The prophet who was sanctified from his mother's womb and received the fullness of prophecy, is born today from an infertile womb. He plainly announces the coming of the Lord while he says, "Repent, for the Kingdom of God is near!"

Intercession

P/D: O God, save your people and bless your inheritance.
 Visit your world with mercy and compassion; exalt the horn of Orthodox Christians and send down on them your rich mercy, through the prayers of our all-pure Lady, Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary, by the power of the honourable and life-giving cross, through the protection of the honourable bodiless powers of heaven, through the prayers of the honourable, glorious, prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John, of the holy, glorious, all-praised apostles, of the holy, all-praised and victorious martyrs, of our holy and God-bearing fathers, of the holy and just forebears of God, Ioachim and Anna, of the holy prophet and forerunner John, and of all the saints. We ask you, only merciful Lord, "Listen to us sinners as we pray to you, and have mercy on us."

Lord have mercy. XI2

Through the mercy, compassion and love for the human race of your uniquely-fathered Son, with whom you are blessed, together with the all-holy, good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Kontákion

Tone 3

The woman who had been infertile has become fruitful, and today gives birth to the Forerunner of Christ. He is the greatest and last of the prophets, for when he stood in the waters of the Jordan, he placed his hands on Christ whom all the prophets had announced. By doing this he became a prophet himself, a preacher and Forerunner of the Word of God.

Íkos

Let us now praise the Forerunner of the Lord! Elizabeth has produced him today from an unfruitful womb for the priest, yet not without seed. Only Christ passed through an impassable dwelling without seed. An unfertile woman gave birth to John, but he was not born without the help of man. A pure Virgin, whom the Father and the Spirit of God overshadowed, bore Jesus. The one who came from the unfertile woman was revealed as a prophet of the Lord who was born from a virgin without seed. He was a preacher and forerunner of the Word of God.

Synaxáron

Today we remember the birthday of the honourable glorious prophet and forerunner, John the Baptist. He was born to be the Forerunner of the Messiah. (Luke 1:76) He was raised as a Nazarite. (They did not drink wine.) O Zachariah, rejoice! O wife, be glad, for every mother of a man can be envious! You have only one son rather than many, yet how great is this Forerunner born on the Twenty Fourth!

Together with him we also remember:
Abbot Anthony of Dymysk (Novgorod) C13
O God, have mercy on us through their holy prayers. Amen.

Katavasias

1: I will open my mouth and be filled with the spirit. I will sing a song to the Queen and Mother. I will come, rejoice in the feast and praise all her glory.

3: O Theotokos, living and inexhaustible fountain, in your divine glory spiritually establish your choir which is assembled in chorus. Make them worthy to receive crowns of glory in your mercy.

4: The counsel of God cannot be scrutinised. The Most High was incarnate from a Virgin. The prophet Habakkuk foresaw this and cried, "Glory to your power, O God!"

5: O Virgin, all creation was amazed at your divine glory, for you knew no man. You held thee God of all in your womb and gave birth to the eternal Son. You order salvation for all those who praise you.

6: O devout people, come and clap hands while we observe this divine and most precious feast of the Mother of God. Let us glorify God who was born from her.

7: The devout youths worshipped the Creator rather than created things. They courageously trampled on the threatening fire and joyfully sang, "Blessed are you, most praised Lord, the God of our fathers."

8: Let us praise, bless and worship the Lord. The Lord who was born from the Theotokos saved the holy children in the furnace. The one who was then prefigured has now been born on earth and gathers the whole inhabited earth to sing, "All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord and exalt him above all for ever.

Tone 3

Today the joyful birth of the Forerunner loosens the tongue of his father and the infertility of his mother. He proclaims the coming joy and gladness. Therefore all creation joins in keeping this feast.

O pure Theotokos, the prophets announced, the apostles taught and the holy martyrs openly acknowledged your Son to be God of all. Together with them, we glorify you, for we have been saved through you from the ancestral condemnation.

Tone 8

Let everything with breath praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.

To you, O God, is due a song.

Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his powers.
To you, O God, is due a song.

S4: Praise him with cymbal and dance;
praise him with strings and flute.

Most glorious wonder! John the Forerunner of God the Word hurries to come from an aged womb. He allows the bound tongue to speak clearly and sweetly by his birth. Glory to your ineffable dispensation, by which you save our souls, O Christ, for you alone are compassionate!

S3: Praise him with tuneful cymbals;
praise him with joyful cymbals.
Let everything with breath praise the Lord.

Most glorious wonder! Among those born of women, the greatest of prophets loosens the reproach of a mother's infertility. He comes in the strength and spirit of Ilias to prepare the way of the Lord. Glory to your ineffable dispensation, by which you save our souls, O Christ, for you alone are compassionate!

S2: Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel. Lk 2
Most glorious wonder! The one who announced the birth of Christ to the human race, reveals every heavenly matter by his voice. By being born he destroys infertility with divine strength and releases the voice of Zachariah. O Master, your marvellous works are great! Through them, save those who honour your great Forerunner.

S1: And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High. Most glorious wonder! The prophet and Forerunner is revealed from above. He is the greatest among those born of women, the highest of prophets, and the Forerunner of the coming of Christ. He leapt in his mother's womb. O Lover of the human race, your gifts are great! O Christ, save our souls through them, for you are all-powerful.

Glory: Tone 6

Today the Forerunner John, the star of stars, and the cherished man of God, is born on earth from an infertile womb. He reveals the faith which dawns from the heights and prepares a true Passover for the faithful.

Both now:

O Theotokos, you are the true vine who bloomed for us with the Fruit of life. O Lady, we pray to you, "Intercede together with the apostles and all the saints that he will have mercy on our souls."

Great Doxology

Glory to you who have shown us the light!
glory to God in the highest!
Peace on earth and goodwill to men!

² We praise you, we bless you, we worship you,
we glorify you, we thank you for your great glory,

³ O Lord King, heavenly God, almighty Father,
O Lord, only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, and you, O Holy Spirit!

⁴ O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sin of the world;
have mercy on us,
for you take away the sin of the world.

⁵ Receive our prayer, for you sit on the right of the Father,
and have mercy on us.

⁶ For only you are holy, only you are Lord,
O Jesus Christ, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

⁷ I will bless you every day and always praise your name for ever and ever. Ps 144

⁸ O Lord, allow us this day to be guarded from sin.

⁹ Blessed are you, O Lord God of our fathers!
Praised and glorified be your name for ever. Amen. Daniel 3

¹⁰ O Lord, let your mercy be on us, for we have hoped in you. Ps 32.

¹⁶ Blessed are you, O Lord!
Teach me your statutes. X3 Ps 118

¹² O Lord, you have been our refuge from generation to generation. Ps 89

I said, "O Lord, have mercy on me;
heal my soul, for I have sinned against you." Ps 40

¹⁴ O Lord, I have fled to you;
teach me to do your will, for you are my God. Ps 142

¹⁵ For with you is the source of life and in your light we will see light. Ps 35

¹⁶ Stretch out your mercy to those who know you. Ps 35

Triságion

Apolytikion

Tone 4

O prophet and Forerunner of the coming of Christ, although we cannot praise you worthily, we honour you in love on your birthday. For by it you ended your father's silence and your mother's infertility; you proclaimed to the world the incarnation of the Son of God.

LITURGY

Antiphon 1 Ps 91 Tone 5

S1: It is good to thank the Lord and make melody to your name, O Most High.

R: At the prayers of the Theotokos, Saviour, save us!

S2: To announce your mercy in the morning
and your truth by night,

S3: For the Lord our God is upright and there is no injustice in him.

S4: Glory: Both now:

Antiphon 2 Ps 94 Tone 2

S1: Come, let us rejoice in the Lord,
and shout with joy to God our Saviour.

R: Save us, O Son of God. You are wonderful in your saints.
We sing to you, "Alleluia!"

S2: Let us enter his presence with gratitude and shout with gladness to him in psalms.

For the Lord is a great God
and an exalted king over all the earth.

S3: For the ends of the earth are in his hand and the summits of the mountains are his.

For the sea is his and he made it;
his hands have formed the dry land.

Monogenes

Antiphon 3 Lk 2 Tone 4

S1: Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel.

R: O prophet and Forerunner of the coming of Christ, although we cannot praise you worthily, we honour you in love on your birthday. For by it you ended your father's silence and your mother's infertility; you proclaimed to the world the incarnation of the Son of God.

S2: And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High.

Entrance Ps 94

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ.
Save us, O Son of God.
You are wonderful in your saints.
We sing to you, "Alleluia!"

Of the Church

Kontákion

O unfailing protection of Christians and unchanging mediator before the Creator, do not despise the prayers of us sinners, but in your goodness extend your help to those of us who faithfully cry to you, "O Theotokos, you always protect those who honour you, so hurry to intercede for us and hasten to plead for us."

Triságion

Prokeímenon Ps 63 Tone 7

R: The just will rejoice in the Lord.

S: O God, listen to my voice.

Apóstolos

From the Letter of Paul to Romans (13:11-14:4)

Brothers, you know what hour it is, how it is full time now for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. ¹²The night is far gone, the day is at hand. Let us then throw out the works of darkness and put on the armour of light. ¹³Let us conduct ourselves becomingly as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and dissipation, not in quarrelling and jealousy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ and make no provision to gratify the flesh its desires. ¹As for the man who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not for disputes over opinions. ²One believes he may eat anything, while the weak man eats only vegetables. ³Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats; for God has welcomed him. ⁴Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Master is able to make him stand.

Alleluia Lk 1 Tone 1

S1: Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel.

S2: And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High.

Gospel

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke (1:1-25, 57-68, 80)

Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things which have been accomplished among us, ² just as they were delivered to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, ³ it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ that you may know the truth concerning the things of which you have been informed. ⁵

In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah; and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶ And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. ⁷ But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in years. ⁸ Now while he was serving as priest before God when his division was on duty, ⁹ according to the custom of the priesthood, it fell to him by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰ And the whole crowd of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. ¹¹ And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. ¹² And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. ¹³ But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer is heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John. ¹⁴ And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth; ¹⁵ for he will be great before the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶ And he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God, ¹⁷ and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared." ¹⁸ And Zechariah said to the angel, "How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in years." ¹⁹ And the angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. ²⁰ And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things come to pass, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." ²¹ And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they wondered at his delay in the temple. ²² And when he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he made signs to them and remained dumb. ²³ And when his time of service was ended, he went to his home. ²⁴ After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she hid herself, saying, ²⁵ "Thus the Lord has done to me in the days when he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men." ²⁷ Now the time came for Elizabeth to be delivered, and she gave birth to a son. ²⁸ And her neighbours and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. ²⁹ And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they would have named him Zechariah after his father, ³⁰ but his mother said, "Not so; he will be called John." ³¹ And they said to her, "None of your kindred is called by this name." ³² And they made signs to his father, inquiring what he would have him called. ³³ And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John." And they all marvelled. ³⁴ And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. ³⁵ And fear came on all their neighbours. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea; ³⁶ and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be?" For the hand of the Lord was with him. ³⁷ And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, ³⁸ "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has visited and redeemed his people." ⁸⁰ And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Communion Ps 111

The just will be in everlasting remembrance. Alleluia!
