Lord I have cried

Tone 1

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

O Lord, listen to me.

O Lord, I have cried to you, listen to me;

Note the voice of my plea when I cry to you.

O Lord, listen to me.

² Let my prayer be directed before you like incense,
the raising of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

O Lord, listen to me.

S8: O Lord, I have cried to you from the depths;

O Lord listen to my voice.

Let us cry out every day to the Creator with the very words of Christ himself. He taught this prayer to his disciples, "Our Father in heaven, give us today our daily bread and overlook our many sins."

S7: Let your ears note the voice of my plea.

The Lord who wrote the law on Mount Sinai in days of old came incarnate to the town of Nazareth. Christ our God took the scroll of the prophet in his hands. After he had read from it, he rolled it up and taught the people that the scriptures reach their fulfilment in him.

S6: O Lord, if you mark offences, who will stand?

But there is forgiveness with you.

O Lover of the human race, keep the environment which clothes the earth unharmed so that we may be rescued from destruction and ruin, for we, your unworthy petitioners who inhabit the earth by your will, live, move and have our being in it.

S5: O Lord, I have waited for you for your name's sake;

my soul has waited for your word,
my soul has hoped in the Lord.

O Christ our Saviour, surround the whole creation with the powerful strength of your love for the human race. Rescue the earth in which we live from the corruption that threatens it, for we, your servants, have hoped in you.

S4: Let Israel hope in the Lord
from morning watch until night, from morning watch.

O Saviour, put an end to the evil schemes which are being devised against us with irrational intention. Turn away from the earth every destructive work of human handiwork which engineers corruption and leads to loss.

Tone 5

S3: For there is mercy with the Lord and abundant redemption with him.

He will redeem Israel from all his offences.

O venerable father, if it were possible for your pillar to speak, it would continually sing about your pains, your labours and lamentations. For it did not merely bear you, but it was itself borne like a tree and watered with your tears. The angels were amazed and men marvelled. O venerable Simeon, the demons feared your patience; pray that our souls may be saved.

S2: Every nation, praise the Lord;
every people, acclaim him!

O venerable father, you emulated your Master through the power of the Divine Spirit when you mounted your pillar as though it were a cross. He tore apart the handwriting of all our sins, while you put down the uprisings of the passions. He was like a lamb, while you were like a sacrifice. He ascended the cross, while you ascended the pillar. O venerable Simeon, pray that our souls may be saved.

S1: For his mercy is strengthened over us and the truth of the Lord remains for ever.

O venerable father, your memory and the humility of your heart remain for ever. O good pastor, you are the blessed favourite of Christ, for although you have departed from us, yet in spirit you do not leave us. You intercede in love before God, as you join the chorus with the angels in heaven. Pray with them that our souls may be saved.

Glory: Tone 6

O holy Simeon, divine grace overshadows the chest which contains your relics. Therefore we are drawn to the perfumed fragrance of your relics to receive healing for our ills. O holy father, pray to Christ God for the salvation of our souls.

Both now:

O Holy Spirit, one in Being with the Son, who is the eternal Word, you create and sustain all visible and invisible matter together with him. Bless the crown of this year, and bring peace to your Orthodox people through the prayers of the Theotokos and all the saints.

Entrance

Phos Ilarón

P/D: Wisdom! Stand upright!

O Jesus Christ, joyful light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy, blessed Father, when we come to the setting of the sun
and see the light of evening,
we praise God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

For it is right at all times to worship you with voices of praise,
O Son of God and Giver of life.
Therefore the world glorifies you.

Prokeímenon

Of the Day

Prophecy 1

From the Prophecy of Isaiah (61:1-10a)

The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me; he has sent me to preach joyful news to the poor, to heal the broken in heart, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind; ² to declare the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of recompense to our God; to comfort all who mourn; ³ that glory instead of ashes should be given to those who mourn in Sion, the oil of joy to the mourners, the clothing of glory for the spirit of heaviness. And they will be called generations of justice, the planting of the Lord for glory. ⁴ Those who build the old waste places, will raise those that before were deserted. They will renew the desert cities, even those that had been desolate for many generations. ⁵ Strangers will come and feed your flocks, and foreigners will be your ploughmen and vine-dressers. ⁶ But you will be called priests of the Lord, ministers of God. You will eat the strength of nations, and be admired because of their wealth. ⁷ Thus they will inherit the land a second time, and everlasting joy will be on their head. ⁸ For I am the Lord who loves justice, and hates robberies of injustice. I will give their labour to the just, and will make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹ Their seed will be known among the nations, and their offspring in the midst of peoples. Every one who sees them will take notice of them, that they are a seed blessed by God, ¹⁰ and they shall greatly rejoice in the Lord.

Prophecy 2

From the Book of Leviticus (26:3-12, 14-17, 19-24)

The Lord spoke to the sons of Israel, saying: If you walk in my ordinances, keep my commandments and do them, ⁴ then I will give you the rain in its season, the land will produce its fruits and the trees of the field will yield their fruit. ⁵ Your threshing time will overtake the vintage and your vintage will overtake your seed time. You will eat your bread to the full, live safely on your land, terror will not be with you and I will destroy the evil beasts from your land. Warfare will not pass through your land and enemies will fall before you. ⁸ Five of you will pursue a hundred and a hundred of you will pursue tens of thousands. ⁹ I will regard you, bless you, increase you, multiply you and establish my covenant with you. ¹⁰ You will eat what is old and very old, bring out the old to make way for the new ¹¹ and my soul will not loathe you. ¹² I will walk among you, be your God, and you will be my people. ¹⁴ But if you will not listen to me, nor keep these my ordinances, ¹⁵ but disobey them, and your soul loathes my judgments, so that you will not keep all my commandments, ¹⁶ then I will do this to you: I will bring on you discomfort. You will sow your seeds in vain and your enemies will eat your products. ¹⁷ I will set my face against you, you will fall before your enemies and they will pursue you. You will flee, although no one pursues you. ¹⁹ I will break down the insolence of your pride and make heaven for you like iron and your earth like brass. ²⁰ Your strength will be in vain, your land will not yield its seed and the trees of your field will not yield fruit. ²² I will send on you the wild animals of the earth and consume your cattle. I will make you few in number with the marching sword, your land will be a desert and your dwellings will be desolate, ²³ for you walk crookedly towards me, ²⁴ so I will walk in fury from the side towards you, says the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel.

From the Wisdom of Solomon (4:7-15)

Although the just may be overtaken with death, yet he will be at rest. ⁸ For honourable age is not in length of time, nor what is measured by the number of years. ⁹ But wisdom is the gray hair to people, and an unspotted life is old age. ¹⁰ He pleased God, and was loved by him, so that living among sinners he was taken up. ¹¹ He was snatched, in case evil should alter his understanding, or deceit charm his soul. ¹² For the bewitching of waywardness obscures things that are honest, and the wandering of desire undermines the simple mind. ¹³ Since he was made perfect in a short time, he completed long years, ¹⁴ for his soul pleased the Lord, therefore he hurried to take him away from among the wicked. ¹⁵ The people saw, and did not understand, neither did they perceive that grace and mercy is with his saints, and that he has visited his chosen ones.

Ektení

Blessed are you, O Holy One; enlighten me with your statutes. O Lord, your mercy lasts for ever; do not overlook the work of your hands. Lití

Tone 4

O Lord, you hold the circle of the earth and establish its foundations, as the prophet says, so accept our fervent petitions, as our Guardian, Protector and Saviour, for we are your people and the sheep of your pasture.

Through your infinite mercy we will be saved from expected dangers.

Therefore, O Master, do not completely destroy us, but let your goodness overcome the abundance of our offences, so that we may all glorify the ocean of your compassionate deeds.

Apósticha

Tone 1

See, the beginning of the year has come! It invites us to sing about Evodos, Ermogenis and Kallisti, brother and sister by blood who are brilliant athletes, Simeon who is equal to the angels, Joshua, the son of Nun, the seven sleepers of Ephesus and the choir of holy women who are forty torches. O feast-lovers, let us sing fervently, "O Lord, bless the work of your hands and allow us to go through the course of the year with success.

S1: O God, praise is due to you in Zion.

and a vow will be repaid to you in Jerusalem. Ps 64

O Christ our God, you created all things in wisdom; you brought everything into being from nothing. Bless now the beginning of the new year. Surround your Church with the impregnable wall of your protection. Show your power and fill the hearts of the faithful with joy. Grant us victory in battle against our visible and invisible enemies; shower mercy on the whole world through the Theotokos.

S2: We will be filled with the goodness of your house;

your temple is holy, wonderful in justice. Ps 64

O God, you are wonderful and your works are marvellous; all your ways are unsearchable. O Wisdom, co-eternal and co-active with the Father, you came to live in the world in your almighty power and sought to recall the image which you had created. You were born most wonderfully from your mother without human seed, yet did not forsake your divinity. You have planned the seasons and times to accomplish our salvation. Therefore we continually cry to you, "Glory to you, good Lord!"

Glory: Tone 5

O holy father, you found the ladder to heaven on which you climbed to the heights like Ilias who ascended in the chariot of fire. He left no path for others to find, but after your death, O heavenly man and earthly angel, your pillar remains as a sign for us all. O vigilant light of the world, Simeon the just, pray that our souls may be saved.

Both now:

O King, you remain unchanged throughout all ages without ceasing. Receive our humble prayers and save us poor sinners. Cause the earth to yield fruit in abundance. O Lover of the human race, send gentle showers to water the fields. Grant your faithful people victories over their adversaries as you upheld your dear David in battle. For you, O Christ our God, are the joy of the Orthodox people. Save us through the prayers of the Theotokos.

Song of Simeon

B/P: O Master, now let your servant depart in peace
 according to your word,
² for my eyes have seen your salvation,
 which you have prepared before all peoples,
³ a light of revelation for the nations and the glory of your people Israel.

Gospel

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke (18:2-8)

The Lord spoke this parable: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about men. And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my adversary.' "For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, 'Even though I do not fear God or care about men, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she will not eventually wear me out with her coming!' " And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly."

R: Glory to you, O Lord, glory to you.

Psalm 50

O God, have mercy on me in your abundant mercy and wipe out my offence through your great compassion.

⁴ Wash me thoroughly from my lawless act and cleanse me from my sin.

⁵ For I know my lawlessness and my sin is always before me.

⁶ I have sinned against you alone and done this evil before you

^{6b} so that you might be justified in your words and overcome when you are judged.

⁷ For see, I was conceived in lawlessness and my mother gave birth to me in sin.

⁸ For see, you have loved truth and revealed to me the hidden and secret things of your wisdom.

⁹ You will sprinkle me with hyssop and I will be clean;
you will wash me and I will become whiter than snow.

¹⁰ You will make me hear about joy and gladness;
the humbled bones will rejoice.

¹¹ Turn your face from my sins and wipe out all my lawlessness.

¹² O God, create a pure heart within me

- and renew an upright spirit within me.
- ¹³ Do not banish me from your presence or remove your Holy Spirit from me.
- ¹⁴ Restore the joy of your salvation to me and make me firm with your directing Spirit.
- ¹⁵ I will teach the lawless your ways and the ungodly will return to you.
- ¹⁶ O God, set me free from the guilt of blood;
O God of my salvation,
my tongue will rejoice in your justice.
- ¹⁷ O Lord, you will open my lips and my mouth will proclaim your praise.
- ¹⁸ For if you had wanted sacrifice, I would have given it;
you will not be pleased with burnt offerings.
- ¹⁹ Sacrifice for God is a broken spirit;
God will not despise a broken and humbled heart.
- ²⁰ O Lord, be good to Zion in your pleasure and let the walls of Jerusalem be built.
- ²¹ Then you will be pleased with a sacrifice of justice,
with an offering and burnt sacrifices;
then they will offer calves on your altar.

Glory: Tone 6

O merciful Lord, blot out the abundance of our offences through the prayers of your holy one.

Intercession

P/D: O God, save your people and bless your inheritance.

Visit your world with mercy and compassion; exalt the horn of Orthodox Christians and send down on them your rich mercy, through the prayers of our all-pure Lady, Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary, by the power of the honourable and life-giving cross, through the protection of the honourable bodiless powers of heaven, through the prayers of the honourable, glorious, prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John, of the holy, glorious, all-praised apostles, of the holy, all-praised and victorious martyrs, of our holy and God-bearing fathers, of the holy and just forebears of God, Ioachim and Anna, of Simeon the Stylite, Joshua, son of Nun, and of all the saints. We ask you, only merciful Lord, “Listen to us sinners as we pray to you, and have mercy on us.”

Lord have mercy. X12

Through the mercy, compassion and love for the human race of your only-begotten Son, with whom you are blessed, together with the all-holy, good and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Kontákia

Tone 4

O holy father, you sought the things above and conversed with men below. You made your pillar a chariot of fire and became a companion of the angels. Together with them you continually intercede for us before Christ our God.

Tone 2

O God, you formed everything visible and invisible through your almighty strength. We plead with your goodness to keep unharmed the environment which surrounds the earth.

Íkos

O loving Saviour, we praise the revelations of your providence as well as your abundant saving power, because you have established laws and unchangeable rules for everything with ineffable wisdom, order and harmony, in order to protect us, your royal creation. O Lord, keep us unshaken from every corrupting activity, change and devastation, for you are the Guardian, Protector and Redeemer of all things. Preserve the essential power in them without change and especially guard the environment which surrounds the earth.

Synaxáron

You are the Ancient of Days and the New Adam. O Christ bless the beginning of our New Year. Let us improve our environment during its course.

On the same day we commemorate our renowned father Simeon the Stylite of Syria who lived in the Fifth Century. He lived for thirty six years on his pillar of rock and gradually increased its height from ten to sixty feet. He made himself available for advice every afternoon. On the First Simeon went from height to height and was united to his Creator.

Together with him we remember:

Joshua the Just, Son of Nun C16 BC

Holy Forty Women Martyrs of Iráklia C4

Martha the Mother of Simeon C5

Monk Drithelm of Melrose C8

O God, have mercy on us through their holy prayers. Amen.

Katavasías

1: Moses inscribed the invincible weapon of the cross on the waters and marked a straight line before him with his staff. He divided the Red Sea and opened a path for Israel who went over dry shod. Then he marked a second line across the waters, united them in one and overwhelmed the chariots of Pharaoh. Therefore let us sing to Christ our God, for he has been glorified.

3: The rod of Aaron is an image of this mystery; it comes into bud to show who should be priest. So also the wood of the Cross has now flowered in the Church that once was barren. It has filled her with strength and steadfastness.

4: O Lord, I have heard the mystery of your dispensation. I have considered your works and glorified your divinity.

5: O three times blessed tree, on which Christ the King and Lord was stretched, the beguiler who tempted the human race with the tree fell because of you. He was caught in the trap set by God who was crucified on you in the flesh and grants peace to our souls.

6: Jonah stretched out his hands in the form of a cross within the belly of the whale and plainly prefigured your redeeming passion. He was cast out after three days and foreshadowed the mighty resurrection of Christ our God who was crucified in the flesh and enlightened the world by his rising on the third day.

7: The senseless decree of the wicked tyrant confused the people and breathed out threats and blasphemy hateful to God. Yet neither the fury of wild beasts nor the roaring of the fire could frighten the three children. As they stood together in the flame and were fanned by the wind which brought refreshment like the dew, they sang, "Blessed are you and praised above all, our God and the God of our fathers!"

8: Let us praise, bless and worship the Lord.
O children, equal in number to the Trinity, bless God the Father and Creator. Sing the praises of the Word who descended and changed the fire to dew and exalt above all for ever the most Holy Spirit who gives life to all.

Ode 9

My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Saviour. R:

R: You are more honourable than the Cherubim and beyond compare more glorious than the Seraphim.
You gave birth to God the Word without defilement;
O true Theotokos, we glorify you.

² For he has regarded his servant's humility;
see, from now all generations will call me blessed. R:

³ For the Almighty has accomplished great things for me and his name is holy.

His mercy is from generation to generation
on those who fear him. R:

⁴ He has accomplished strength with his arm and scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. R:

⁵ He has put down the mighty from their thrones and exalted the humble.

He has satisfied the hungry with good things
and dismissed the rich with nothing. R:

⁶ He has helped his servant Israel
in remembering his mercy,
as he spoke to our fathers,
to Abraham and his seed for ever. R:

9: O Theotokos, you are a mystical Paradise in which Christ blossomed.
Through him the life-bearing wood of the Cross was planted on earth.
Now at its elevation we bow in worship before it and glorify you.

Small Litany

P: For all the powers of heaven praise you, and to you we send up glory, to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen

Exaposteilária

Tone 2

O Lord and God of gods, three persons yet unapproachable, the uncreated almighty Creator and Ruler of all, we fall down before you and pray, "O good Lord, bless this start of a new year. O compassionate Master, preserve Orthodox Christians and all your people in peace.

O venerable Simeon, your life shone like a radiant beacon; it illumines all the world with rays of miracles. O blessed saint, you prayed for us who honour you as you ascended to God on your pillar as though by a ladder, to the place where there is true fulfilment of all desires.

O Maker and Ruler of all creation, you have fixed the times and seasons in your authority; O compassionate Lord, crown the cycles of the year with blessings of goodness. Preserve your people in peace, unharmed and whole, through the prayers of the angels and the mother who gave you birth.

O Lord and Master, you once stretched out the heavens at your command, as the Prophet says, and founded the unformed mass of the earth. Keep the constitution of the inhabited earth in harmony and preserve every element in creation from contamination.

Praises

Tone 3

Let everything with breath praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.

To you, O God, is due a song.

Praise him, all his angels;

praise him, all his powers.

To you, O God, is due a song.

S4: Praise him with cymbal and dance;

praise him with strings and flute.

O pre-eternal Word of the Father, being in the image of God, you have fixed the times and seasons by your authority. Bless the crown of the year with your goodness, grant peace to your Churches, victory to Orthodox Christians, abundance to the earth and great mercy to our souls.

Tone 4

S3: Praise him with tuneful cymbals;

praise him with joyful cymbals.

Let everything with breath praise the Lord.

O Christ our God, your Kingdom is the kingdom of all ages. Your dominion endures through all generations, for you have fashioned everything in wisdom and established the times and seasons for us. We give thanks for all things and cry out to you, "Bless the crown of the year with your goodness and allow us to cry out to you without condemnation, "Glory to you, O Lord!"

S2: We will be filled with the goodness of your house;

your temple is holy, wonderful in justice. Ps 64

O God, your paths are great and wonderful beyond all ways. We glorify the power of your dispensation, for being Light of Light, you were well pleased, O Word, to come to your wretched world in order to destroy the primeval curse of ancient Adam. In your wisdom you have appointed times and seasons for us so that we may glorify your goodness which accomplishes everything. Glory to you, O Lord!

Tone 2

S1: O God, praise is due to you in Zion.

and a vow will be repaid to you in Jerusalem. Ps 64

O Lord, when you strengthened the inhabited earth with your power, those who were stumbling clothed themselves with might. Women revealed manly courage in the face of the cruellest tyrants. They overcame the defeat of the mother of the human race, they regained the delights of Paradise and were able to glorify you, for you were born from a woman and saved the human race.

Glory: Tone 2

The holy Simeon came like good fruit from healthy stock; he was nurtured from infancy more by grace than by milk. As he lifted his holy body on the pillar of stone and raised his mind to God, he fashioned a heavenly home with his virtues. He danced in the chorus with the hosts of God and became a dwelling place for Christ, the Saviour of our souls.

Both now: Tone 8

O Christ, O Word of God, O God, you created everything in your ineffable wisdom and appointed times and seasons for us.  holds the earth together and save the inhabited earth.

Apostolos

From the First Letter of Paul to Timothy (2:1-7)

My son Timothy, first of all, then, I urge that pleas, prayers, intercessions and thanksgivings be made for all men, ² for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way. ³ This is good, and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, ⁴ who desires that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For "There is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who gave himself as a ransom for all." The testimony to this was made at the right time. ⁷ For this I was appointed a preacher and apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Alleluia Ps 64 Tone 4

S1: O God, praise is due to you in Zion.

S2: We will be filled with the goodness of your house.

Gospel

From the Holy Gospel according to Luke (4:16-22)

At that time, Jesus went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour." Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his lips.

Communion Ps 64

You will bless the crown of the year with your goodness;
your plains will be filled with richness. Alleluia!
